U. S. Supreme Court Refuses To Take Mooney's Case

DECLINES TO INTERFERE WITH STATE

Decision Does Not Prevent Mooney From Appealing State's Ruling

WASHINGTON, Oct. 14.—(UP)—The supreme court today again refused the plea of Thomas J. Mooney, famous labor leader, that it take his case out of the hands of the California courts which have been hearing his plea that he was illegally convicted for participating in the 1916 Preparedness Day parade bombing in San Francisco.

The court's action was understood only to indicate that it does not intend to interrupt the California proceedings, but the action does not prevent the Mooney lawyers from appealing from the state court's decision on the direct question of his freedom when decision is finally made.

The court refused without prejudice to hear a similar plea a year ago. In so doing it handed down an opinion sharply critical of California officials.

The tone of the opinion was such that it caused the attorneys for the prisoner to file a petition for a writ of habeas corpus with the California supreme court.

The higher tribunal had indicated that it cannot consider the

TUSTIN SCHOOL TEACHER TIED UP BY BURGLAR

STRUCK over the head when she screamed for help, Miss Grace Shults, Tustin Union High school teacher, today is recovering from shock at her home at the Parsons Court, 207 North Glassell street, Orange, following an attack by a burglar who entered her apartment sometime between 10 p. m. last night and 6 a. m. this morning.

Miss Shults told G. W. Coltrane of the Orange police force this morning, that she retired at 10 o'clock last night and that sometime during the night, the burglar entered through a window. When she screamed the intruder struck her over the head with his fist and then tied her hands and feet with a rope hanging in the room which she had provided for her cat to play with. Miss Shults was unable to furnish police with a description of the burglar as the room was dark, she stated.

The burglar ransacked the apartment, not using any light, Miss Shults told police, and although he turned everything upside down, he took nothing.

At 6 a. m. Miss Shults heard Lloyd Baker arrive at the service

U. S. CENSUS BUREAU FORMULA GIVES S. A. 34,179 POPULATION

Increase Of 3857 Shown In 5 Years

Population Of State Two Million Greater Than Last Census

SANTA ANA'S population now stands at 34,179 and that of California at 6,262,352 according to a formula used by the Census Bureau.

The formula makes no allowance for any abnormal increase or decrease due to new department projects.

For the whole country, the population stands at 127,181,000 computed from the births, deaths and immigration since 1930, when the total of 123,775,043 was scored by actual count. The 10-year gain from 1920 to 1930 had been 17,450,000 and the gain since then—about half the previous rate—had been 4,405,900, or 26 per cent of the 1920-30 gain.

The Santa Ana gain from 1920 to 1930 was 14,837 to 30,332 by actual house-to-house canvass. The estimate of gain since then is assumed by this formula to be 26 per cent of the 10-year gain, or 3,857, which is added to the 1930 total.

By a similar process of figuring the California estimate is reached. The 10-year gain in the state was 2,250,390 and accordingly the five-year gain since 1930 figures out to 585,101, which is added to the 1930 total.

While the national total is more accurately calculated now than ever before, many factors impair the effectiveness of the mathematical estimate for given places. Need for a canvass has been cited by Secretary of Commerce Roper, but he has concluded that an adequate force could not be enlisted from relief rolls and therefore the undertaking could not be made a WPA project.

ALBANIA DEFENDING ADRIATIC COASTLINE

ATHENS, Oct. 14.—(UP)—Albania has begun construction of strong defenses along the Adriatic coast in accordance with a secret treaty with Italy. It was stated here today in reliable quarters. Italian officers are supervising the work.

The Isle of Sason, off the Albanian coast, is also being fortified.

It is reported that the fortifications are being built in exchange for an Italian loan of $9,990,990 gold francs ($3,954,990).

ROME, Oct. 14.—(UP)—Government authorities today professed ignorance of reports abroad that Albania was fortifying her Adriatic coast line.

Under no circumstances, they said, would Italian army officers supervise the construction of defense works in another country.

34,000 KILLED BY AUTOS DURING 1934

WASHINGTON, Oct. 14.—(UP)—Autobodies last year killed 33,980 persons—more than in any other year—the department of commerce reported today.

Deaths in 1934 were at the rate of 26.9 per 100,000 population, and showed a gain of 15 per cent over fatalities in 1933 and 23 per cent above 1932.

Nevada was the most dangerous motoring state last year, and automobiles killed 73.4 persons per 10,000 population. Wyoming followed with a rate of 45.25; Arizona third with 44.85 and California fourth with 42.62.

CHAIN LETTER BRINGS QUILT

Latest Craze Invades Huntington Beach Territory CAN GET 200 YARDS GOODS

"THE WORLD'S Friendship Quilt," chain letter has reached to Huntington Beach from Northern California points. The quilt plan is along the same lines as the money chain letter plans which were stopped by the federal government. The person receiving the letter is asked to send a six-inch length of new print to the top name on a list of five names.

In return the letter claims each name on the list will receive 200 yards of quilt pieces as the names leave the list—provided the chain is not broken.

Since the depression the home quilt making industry has gained quite an impetus and sales of goods suitable for quilt pieces at stores have increased tremendously. The new chain letter quilt scheme, however, should not prove profitable for any one, except the postoffice department.

Despite the expense the quilt chain letter is said to be merely speeding on its way through the postoffices of California. Here's the letter.

"The friendship quilt was started in order to bring to you new and beautiful quilt pieces. Within three days make five copies of this letter, leaving off the top name. Mail or hand to five of your friends who love quilts, add your name to the bottom. Send to the person whose name heads the list one six-inch length of new print. In return you will receive goods equal to two hundred yards of quilt pieces as your name leaves the list, providing the chain is not broken. Thank you."

30 HOUR WEEK MRS. J. S. FLUOR OBJECTIVE OF PASSES AWAY LABOR UNIONS THIS MORNING

ATLANTIC CITY, N. J., Oct. 14.—(UP)—A 30-hour work week without reduction of the weekly wage was declared today by the American Federation of Labor, to be its "paramount objective" for the future.

The federation, beginning the second week of its annual convention here, voted enthusiastically for the 30-hour week after President

MRS. EMMA W. FLUOR, 64, wife of J. Simon Fluor, nationally known contractor and head of the Fluor Construction company, died this morning at St. Joseph hospital, after an illness of several days.

Mrs. Fluor, whose home was at 1514 North Main, was a native of Oshkosh, Wisconsin, and had lived in Santa Ana for the last 23 years. Funeral services will be held Wednesday morning at 10 o'clock from the Smith and Tutill chapel. The Rev. William E. Roberts, former pastor of the First Presbyterian church of Santa Ana, will officiate, with interment in Fairview cemetery.

Mrs. Fluor is survived by her husband, J. Simon Fluor; two daughters, Mrs. H. A. Gardner, of Santa Ana, and Mrs. L. W. Daigle, of Anaheim; three sons, P. E. Fluor, Anaheim; F. C. Fluor, Santa Ana; J. S. Fluor, Jr., Santa Ana, and seven grandchildren.

PRESIDENT TO SAIL FOR PANAMA TODAY

ABOARD THE U. S. S. HOUSTON, Oct. 14.—(UP)—President Roosevelt sailed today on a tropical tour, the first clear weather today, a week, and waited for a destroyer to bring him his first official mail since he started on his southern cruise.

The Houston and the U. S. S. Portland are scheduled to sail from these languid waters off Bahi Honda, Panama at 5 p. m. for the Perlas Islands of Panama. Then they will turn through the Panama Canal and through the Caribbean toward home.

Mr. Roosevelt spent a quiet Sunday in the midst of the tropical islands. After church services on the Houston quarterdeck he read and studied regular advice on the world situations, particularly regarding the East African campaign.

STORMS THREATEN NEVADA SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 14.—(UP)—Fear of extensive damage from a storm sweeping down the Pacific seaboard from the Gulf of Alaska diminished today as clouds and scattered showers moved southeastward from coast states into Nevada and Idaho.

A majority of northern California, Washington and Oregon felt the effects of the disturbance last night and early today, the U. S. weather bureau reported.

Soviets And Japanese In Death Clash

Russia Sends Protest To Tokyo; Eleven Known To Have Been Killed

TOKYO, Oct. 14.—(UP)—Six Japanese and five Manchukuoans were killed in a frontier clash which brought an official protest from the Russian government army headquarters at Hsinking, Manchukuo, announced today. There was no mention of Russian casualties.

It was known that there were fatal casualties on the Russian side but the number had not been announced, and was unknown to army authorities.

Official statements said the total number of Japanese and Manchukuoans involved in one clash, which occurred near the village of Grodekovo on the Siberian-Manchukuoan frontier, was 39. The detachment was composed of consular police and others.

Some difficulty seemed to have been encountered both here and at Moscow in determining the exact extent of casualties and commanders in the region affected were pressed for lists.

MOST FASCINATING WOMEN ARE CHOSEN

PARIS, Oct. 14.—(UP)—The world's 19 most fascinating women were named for the United Press today by Elsa Maxwell, New York and Paris social leader. She picked them from royal courts, society, Hollywood, from writers and one even from the air.

The United States contributed a lion's share. They are: Marlene Dietrich, Hollywood actress; Michael Strange, the writer who is the former Blanche Ulrich of Newport, R. I., and former wife of John Barrymore; Baroness Elizabeth de Rothschild, the former Kitty Spottiswood of Philadelphia; Daisie Rignold Fellows, "world's best dressed woman"; Lady Elsie Wolf Mendel, who has retained her sense of humor by standing on her head each morning; Gertrude Stein, American who lives in France and writes poetry; Margot Asquith, Virginian-born widow of the former premier of Great Britain; Mrs. Robert H. McAdoo, of New York City; Collette—Madame Maurice Goudeket—French author; and Anella Echart, American aviatrix who "has everything that fascinates."

DOUBLE FOR SCREEN STARS SHOT DOWN

HOLLYWOOD, Oct. 14.—(UP)—A woman who laughed as a bullet fired from a speeding automobile killed Harriet Waite, 29-year-old double for screen stars, on a North Hollywood boulevard, was hunted by police today.

Mrs. Waite, a film studio beauty prize winner in 1925, was walking from her hotel to a neighborhood market, when a small grey coupe sped towards her, witnesses said.

As it passed a single shot blazed from the car's dark interior and sent the girl sprawling to the pavement.

"We heard a woman laugh loudly, followed by a scream and then a shot," two 13-year-old girls, Jean Clark and Ruth Clinam, told police.

Mrs. Waite died in a police ambulance on the way to a hospital, without recovering consciousness.

ACTION OPENS WAY FOR NEW DRIVE SOUTHWARD BY MUSSOLINI FORCES

BULLETIN

ADDIS ABABA, Oct. 13.—(UP)—Italy has made indirect but definite proposals to Ethiopia to end the war in return for substantial cessions of territory and economic advantages, government spokesmen revealed today.

Emperor Haile Selassie's answer was a flat "No."

Copyright 1935 by United Press
ADUWA, Ethiopia, Oct. 13.—(via Asmara, Eritrea, Oct. 14.)—(UP)—Aksum, holy city of Ethiopia, surrendered to Italy today without the firing of a shot.

Its priests offered submission to the Italian army on the northern front. No soldiers remained in the ancient city, burial place of Ethiopia's kings and one time capital of the Queen of Sheba.

Its surrender, and the surrender of Ras Haile Selassie Gugsa, governor of southern Tigre province, and other chieftains, opens the way for a new drive southward onto the plateau, probably without resistance.

Aksum's surrender was of vast military and sentimental importance to the Italian northern armies.

It was a climax—for the present—to voluntary surrenders of priests and chieftains who foreswore allegiance to Emperor Haile Selassie of Ethiopia.

Surrender of six more chiefs was announced today. Many priests have walked into the Italian lines.

No Shots Fired

Aksum's occupation came after a week of careful preparation. The town was almost surrounded. Lines of communication were built right up to its edge. No shot was fired because the Italians realized the sacred character of Ethiopia's Rome or Mecca.

Now the first phase of the whole Italian campaign in the north is complete.

The Italian line runs from a point east of Adigrat to Aksum, through Aduwa. A rectangle of territory 60 miles wide and 25 miles deep on the northern frontier of Ethiopia is under complete Italian occupation.

Priests of the Holy city, and heads of its 13 monasteries, submitted themselves today to Gen. Pietro Maravigna, commanding the Gavianian division of regulars which occupied Aduwa.

All Ethiopian soldiers had fled long since, apparently to the south. Ras Siyoum, commander-in-chief on the northern front, was reported

SIX DRASTIC PENALTIES ARE FIXED BY LEAGUE COMMITTEE

LONDON, Oct. 14.—(UP)—Great Britain today lifted its embargo on arms to Ethiopia, the first nation to carry out the first of the League of Nations penalties against Italy.

GENEVA, Oct. 14.—(UP)—The League of Nations' sanctions committee of 18 today accepted a proposal by Capt. Anthony Eden of Great Britain to make Oct. 31 the time limit for various governments to ratify the League's financial and economic penalties against Italy.

GENEVA, Oct. 14.—(UP)—Six drastic financial penalties against Italy, aimed at the rupture of financial and credit relations by all members of the League of Nations, were adopted by the "general staff" of the League penalties committee today.

The penalties were adopted after a preamble and five specific points. They were reported on reliable authority to be as follows:

Preamble—Prohibitions adopted are to apply not only against Italian government and persons and corporations on Italian soil but also against third countries or persons or corporations in third countries acting as intermediaries for Italy.

1. Prohibition of loans to the Italian government and subscriptions to loans floated by the Italian government.

2. Prohibition of bank credits to the Italian government.

3. Prohibition of loans to Italian public institutions, corporate bodies or persons, and prohibition of subscriptions to loans floated by the classes of persons and companies named.

4. Prohibition of the emission of shares to persons or corporate bodies on Italian soil.

5. Prohibition of all bank or other credits to private persons or corporate bodies on Italian soil or any continuance of execution of existing credit contracts.

REOPEN TREASURY PROBE IN CAPITAL

SACRAMENTO, Cal., Oct. 14.—(UP)—Evidence supporting assertions that State Treasurer Charles G. Johnson obtained legal loans without security was sought by District Attorney Otis D. Babcock today as investigation of the state's finances continued in various quarters.

The county grand jury was not scheduled to meet again until Friday, when it will begin studying financial transactions attributed to the treasurer. Babcock said he would bring before the jury officers of the closed Central National bank of Oakland and attempt to determine how Johnson reportedly obtained loans from the bank without posting security.

Meanwhile, auditors continued checking the treasury records to learn whether state funds were short more than the $24,000 reported missing shortly after Cashier William B. Shearer disappeared nearly a month ago.

SUPREME COURT DECISIONS

WASHINGTON, Oct. 14.—(UP)—The supreme court today refused to entertain a review application involving the suit of a group of private citizens to set aside the title of oil lands in the southern part of California valued at $377,000,000 on the grounds that the titles are invalid.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 14.—(UP)—The supreme court today decided to hear arguments in an appeal involving the newspaper advertising tax passed by the Louisiana state legislature at the instance of the late Huey P. Long.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 14.—(UP)—The supreme court refused to enter the Louisiana political picture today by announcing it will not consider an attack on one of the laws which the late Sen. Huey P. Long, the state's slain democratic dictator, jammed through the state legislature in his attempts to wrest control of New Orleans from Mayor T. Semmes Wainwright.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 14.—(UP)—The supreme court today refused to reconsider the decision by which it declared the original Frasier-Lemke farm moratorium act unconstitutional last spring.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 14.—(UP)—The state of Georgia today asked permission to file with the supreme court an original suit to have taxes under the Bankhead cotton control act declared invalid.

2400 PLEDGES ARE SIGNED IN SAFETY DRIVE

With 2400 pledges to drive safely over Santa Ana streets already sent out through the service clubs and other civic organizations, the Santa Ana police department saw its plans for a safety drive recently announced by Chief of Police Floyd W. Howard, a success today.

Approximately 1000 cards have been returned signed, many corporations in the city such as the Southern California Edison company, the Southern Counties Gas company, the bigger markets and groceries all having sent for cards for their employees to sign.

Stickers marked "Safety" are issued to the signers of each card and Santa Ana cars are being dotted with them, Howard said.

Cards are to be put out to motorists through the school children this week, it was said, and the Boy Scouts and other organizations are to be furnished pledges within the next few days.

INQUEST SCHEDULED IN FOOTBALL DEATH

Inquest into the death of John Ochoa, 17-year-old Anaheim Union High school quarterback, who died Saturday of injuries received in the Anaheim-Riverside high school game at Riverside on Friday night, will be held at 10 a. m. tomorrow, at the Backs, Terry and Campbell funeral parlors, it was announced today by Earl Abbey, coroner.

Ochoa, star athlete for the school, suffered a fracture of the skull in a head-on collision with a Riverside player. He was not believed to have been badly hurt at the time, and was conscious at the end of the game.

When the team returned to Orange county after a 19-19 tie score, he was placed in the Cottage hospital at Anaheim where he died shortly before noon Saturday.

C. C. OBLIGATIONS REDUCED TO $750

Obligations of the Santa Ana Chamber of Commerce today amounted to but $750, it was reported by Secretary Howard I. Wood. During the past year obligations of the chamber have been reduced by $1500.

Ray Goodell, chairman of the membership committee, reported that a cleanup campaign on membership will be launched at once. Directors of the chamber will assist in the campaign, which is expected to net enough funds to enable the chamber to carry on the balance of the year.

On receipt of a request from Harry Hanson, president of the Community Players the directors agreed to renew a membership with the Players.

Burchfield Rites Being Held Today

Funeral services for Mrs. Elizabeth Ann Burchfield, 75, of Placentia, who died Saturday, were held this afternoon at 2:30 o'clock, from the Harrel and Brown funeral home. The Rev. B. H. Blanchard, pastor of the Brea Baptist church, officiated, with interment following in Westminster Memorial park.

Mrs. Burchfield, a native of Tennessee, had only lived in the county for the past five months, having moved here from Florida to make her home with her son.

She is survived by two sons, Henry L. Burchfield, of Placentia, and Benjamin C. Burchfield, of Mountain Park, New Mexico.

30 HOUR WEEK DECLINES TO OBJECTIVE OF INTERFERE IN LABOR UNIONS MOONEY'S CASE

Green had declared, "We must obtain the shorter work week, either through our economic strength or through legislation."

"We will fight for it as never before," Green concluded as the delegates applauded.

"If there is any one who will not fight to the limit, let him get out of the way. This federation will not tolerate a slacker."

The convention then unanimously adopted the declaration of policy reaffirming previous demands for the shorter work week as a means of absorbing unemployment.

TWO SCHOOLS IN CLOSE RACE FOR FIRE WEEK HONOR

Whether the McKinley or Fremont school will be the winner in the elementary division of Santa Ana schools in the fire drill contests held recently, was still in doubt today.

John Henderson, secretary of the chamber of commerce committee which is in charge of the fire drill contests, held in connection with Fire Prevention Week each year, said today that the contest is so close that an accurate check is being made of the scoring and that results will be announced tomorrow.

Each of the two schools have won for two years and the school which wins this year will win a permanent chamber of commerce trophy cup.

So close was the contest this year that motion pictures were made of the students passing out of the buildings to see if any of them were out of step, Henderson reported to directors of the chamber of commerce this morning.

Mooney case until every recourse to the state had been made.

Proceedings recently were begun before a referee appointed by the California supreme court to take testimony. The hearing, reviewing again the issues of the trial at which Mooney was convicted of the 1916 Preparedness Day parade became bitter.

Thomas J. Finerty and Frank P. Walsh, Mooney's lawyers, then appealed to the supreme court to take the case itself on the grounds the California proceedings were being prolonged for the purpose of exhausting Mooney's funds.

MOONEY'S LAWYERS REFUSE TO COMMENT

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 14.—(UPI)—Defense attorneys for Thomas J. Mooney today declined to comment on the U. S. supreme court's action in refusing the famed convict's appeal to remove his case from jurisdiction of the California supreme court.

George T. Davis, Mooney's San Francisco attorney, announced the current habeas corpus fight being conducted by a state supreme court commissioner would be "continued as at present."

Today's scheduled hearing on Mooney's petition was postponed in deference to Deputy Attorney General William F. Cleary, whose wife gave birth to a six pound 12 ounce daughter in Merritt hospital, Oakland, yesterday.

It was Cleary's first child. The mother and child were reported progressing favorably.

Handy was convicted in connection with a fire in a building at Corona Del Mar belonging to the Rev. Walter S. Buchanan, of Santa Ana.

Seeking time for an agreement upon a property settlement, Mrs. Pamela W. Hunt and her husband, H. E. Hunt, obtained postponement of their divorce contest scheduled today before Superior Judge A. Caminetti Jr. The case was reset for trial October 18 at 2 p. m. With the property matters settled, it was reported that the wife's divorce suit may not be contested.

William P. Lester has brought suit in superior court against W. F. Hendy and N. F. Handy, to quiet title to four lots at Huntington Beach.

Mary G. Jones was plaintiff today in a superior court action against Henry D. Adams, to foreclose a $2250 mortgage against property in Santa Ana.

Mrs. Blanche M. Loretz, of Huntington Beach, seeks letters of administration over the $2940 estate of her late husband, Joe O. Loretz, who died September 11, in a petition filed today in superior court. The widow and a daughter are legal heirs.

ed retreating with 1000 men toward Remben.

Italian commanders hope the city's surrender, and the submission of priests and chieftains outside it, will be an example to others, it is hinted that subsidies will await them, on the British plan, to insure their loyalty.

Orders Awaited

Now the word avanti—forward—is awaited by the scores of thousands of victorious men on the northern front.

The surrender of Ras Halle Selassie Gussie opened the way for the Italians to march southeastward to join with the eastern army that is operating from the Mt. Mussa All area at the corner of Eritrea, French Somaliland and Ethiopia.

Gussie's own territory comprises 10,000 square miles south of Addis Ababa. To the east of it is the Danakil desert, called "the hell hole of creation," which would make the Italian left flank safe in the advance southward.

But now the way is clear, with the capture of Aksum, for an advance southward not only from the eastward corner of the rectangle which the Italian army has thrust down into Ethiopia but the westward corner which is Aksum.

Along all the front of 60 miles the word Avanti alone is necessary to regularize the vast military machine into action for a second mighty thrust.

Eleven days of the great labor of consolidation have followed the first advance of the Italian army. Road laborers have moved right behind the front line. Water supplies have been provided. There are food dumps, munitions dumps, dumps for oil and gasoline. A thousand motor trucks and more, countless mules, have brought tens of thousands of tons of supplies.

Nursing Post

The men are gant from iron rations and have been resting and nursing their blistered feet.

The animals have open sores, galled from pack saddles.

But now the time is near when a new advance can start whenever Premier Benito Mussolini and Gen. Emilio De Bono, commander-in-chief of the East African armies, deem it advisable.

As both southern corners of the Italian rectangle of occupation are open to advance, it is likely that the forthcoming push will be along the caravan route to Makale, 50 miles south of Adigrat.

But 50 miles seems not the limit. It appears that the army can go forward without obstacles except those of nature and lack of roads passable to wheeled vehicles.

The submission of the coptic Christian priests of the Aksum and Adwa regions will have far reaching political importance. The Coptic clergy are the real rulers of Ethiopia. They have more actual power with the common people than has Emperor Haile Selassie, especially in the north.

Now that the religious leaders of the Holy city have submitted there will be reverberations throughout Ethiopia. The submission probably will be of great influence and encourage other submissions as the Italians advance.

Priests Surrender

Not only did the coptic Christian priests accept Italian domination but leaders of the Moslem communities of both Aksum and Adwa surrendered.

The Italians deliberately avoided any military attack on Aksum, knowing it to be the seat of many religious institutions and monasteries, and desiring to avoid embittering the coptic orders which had been aloof even before the Italian advance because of the fear that invasion would mean an influx of Roman Catholic influence.

But the Italians have shown the utmost deference to religious feelings. I witnessed one instance when I rode in Adwa with Gen. Villa Santa. His first call was at the local Coptic Christian church, where he bent his head in a gesture of kissing the big gilt Byzantine cross offered by the head priest.

Now the way to the south is open. It is possible that political exigencies may impel retardation of a really big forward drive, to give plenty of time for news of today's events to penetrate into the interior by runners who will carry the letters in front of them fixed in a cleft or forked stick.

Authorities here consider the defection of Gussie and the submission of the Coptic priests as the most highly significant occurrences since the beginning of their drive.

The flight of Ras Siyoum—the only leader in the north who can be counted upon for any serious resistance—with only 1000 men leaves a large slice of the Tigre country open to formal taking over by Italy.

But geographic conditions render the mere taking not a simple matter.

LONG AND DALE NAMED HEADS OF COUNTY WPA DEPARTMENTS

APPOINTMENT OF two additional department heads to the Orange county Works Progress Administration staff was announced today by Dan Mulherron, county WPA manager.

Sam Long, former chief time-keeper for the SERA here, has been named to a similar position on the WPA, it was announced, and Harold Dale has been selected to head the compensation department.

Long's duties will be to keep track of the time workers spend engaged on project work and to supervise the other timekeepers in the field. Dale will take charge of payment of compensation to workers injured in their work. Dale has assumed his new duties. Long will start work Wednesday when three projects are launched here for the first time.

NEW LIGHTING FOR BUSINESS DISTRICT URGED

Favorably regarded by the Santa Ana Chamber of Commerce board of directors, a plan suggested by Director Walter Swanberger to neonize the business streets of Santa Ana to make the city business district one of the best-lighted in the Southland was referred to the retail division of the chamber by the directors when they met this morning.

Swanberger asked the board to name a committee to work out the plan, which he said could be put into effect at a small cost to merchants.

A movement has been afoot here for some time to erect modern and colorful neon signs on business buildings from Tenth to First streets on Main street, Swanberger said, and urged that the plan be made to include the Fourth street district as well. He said there are but 16 modern signs on West Fourth street.

Swanberger also suggested that an ordinance be drafted and adopted by the city to make signs of merchants uniform. He asked that signs be placed flush against buildings and not be placed so as to protrude out into the street.

Under the plan, he said, the streets of the city would present a colorful blaze of lights at night and would aid in attracting attention to the city. He called attention to certain parts of the city which are quite dark at night at the present time.

driver of which did not stop to render aid at Washington avenue and Broadway Saturday. The driver of the car was reported to be an Orange man.

Albert Lopez, 1610 West Fourth street, was arrested on a drunk charge by city police Saturday night, after his machine is said to have struck a parked car, registered to R. Navarette, 2222 West Fifth street, in front of his home. Both cars were damaged, but no one was hurt.

ITALY CHARGES GREAT BRITAIN CREATING WAR

International broadcast by Baron Pompeo Aloisi, Italian representative at Geneva. The British Broadcasting company, government monopoly, refused to relay the address to America. British officials explained the action was in pursuance of the sanctions voted against Italy by the League of Nations.

The marine ministry said that since early last week British ships consistently had refused to return salutes of Italian ships, a development unprecedented between naval vessels of countries maintaining diplomatic relations.

A spokesman discussing "these deliberate and provocative offenses" said Italy regarded them as complete justification for taking "due precautions for any emergency."

The editorial in Voce d'Italia, written by Virginia Gayda, recognized spokesman of Fascist policy, said Great Britain is advancing along a "road of folly" and awaiting only a propitious moment to "fire the cannon" of European war.

"Increasing concentrations of the British fleet in the Mediterranean cannot but arouse suspicion," Gayda wrote. "We refuse to accept Eden's word (Anthony Eden, British League of Nations representative) that 'we do not wish trouble with Italy'."

KIWANIS RETURN FROM CONVENTION

The majority of Santa Ana Kiwanians in attendance at the California-Nevada district convention in session Thursday, Friday and Saturday at Hotel Del Monte, returned today to their homes. They included Dr. Melbourne Mabey, newly elected president of Santa Ana Kiwanis club, Mr. and Mrs. Theo A. Wimbler and Mr. and Mrs. Charles E. Walker.

WASHINGTON

By Ray Tucker

DANGERS

A widespread war in Europe would produce the parity toward which the Roosevelt administration has been directed. With the 1910-1914 period as 100, parity means that the farmer receives for his products what he pays out for manufactured goods.

Some crops have reached that level, but only through the aid of benefit payments and control of production. Here are the September 15 prices to the farmer with benefit payments included, as against the parity figure: Cotton, 15.8 cents and 16 cents; wheat, 11.15 and 11.14; potatoes, 5.03 cents and 5.14; hogs, $16.22 and $16.25; beef cattle (no farm program except drought purchases) $5.25 and $5.72 a hundredweight. The processing tax on tobacco has been cut because it is above parity, and a reduction in the hog tax is expected soon for the same reason.

For all his products the farmer is receiving 86 cents on a dollar paid out—still 14 per cent below parity. But huge war orders for wheat, cotton and cattle would make prices soar above the 1910-1914 goal. It would allocate the control-and-benefit-payment system, and preclude demands for its scrapping. The end of hostilities would undoubtedly start as disastrous agricultural slump as followed the World War. That explains Secretary Wallace's plea that farmers use their heads if war comes in a big way.

UNCERTAIN

The administration will not extend its neutrality proclamation to prohibit the export of raw materials to belligerents. President Roosevelt quietly canvassed that front before he issued his declaration. But a study of the Congressional Record disclosed that the sponsors of the neutrality move did not intend to block trade in wheat, cotton, copper, mules, scrap iron, oil, coal, etc.

During the debate in the Senate Duncan Fletcher of Florida, asked Key Pittman, Foreign Relations Chairman and neutrality sponsor, if it was intended to apply an embargo on cotton, the South's product. Mr. Pittman replied in the negative. When the argument was hottest, Senator Ashurst of Arizona reminded Senators Nye, Clark and Bone—bitter-enders for neutrality—that they might be injuring foreign markets for their states' products. He asked them if they realized the economic implications of their move. Nobody answered his query. Nobody expected their states' raw products to suffer from a neutrality embargo.

Existing neutrality statutes expire next February, however. What the administration and congress determine then will show whether we want to surrender profits so that we may stay out of war. Betting is even.

STRATEGY

Henry Wallace thinks he has devised a potato program which will keep the GOP from making the lowly spud as symbolic of revolt against federal domination as tea was in 1775. Through submitted by the potato growers' committee, the Secretary of Agriculture wrote the recommendations.

In general, they toss the problem back to Congress and the potato raiser themselves. They suggest radical amendments for Congress to pass, and they provide that two-thirds rather than a majority of spud-growers be necessary to determine whether control should be continued after the first year. They remove all penalties from consumers for buying bootlegged potatoes. They eliminate the provision requiring producers to ship in federal containers, leaving it up to them to file returns on their sales. They remove growers of 50 bushels or less from the more arduous provisions.

The philosophical Mr. Wallace is turning out to be a smart politician. The GOP opened their barrage too soon and gave him a chance to consolidate his position—and potatoes. It is a mistake the Republicans cannot make too often without hurting themselves. These New Dealers don't hesitate to shift their front and strategy if it seems advisable.

PROBLEM

The decrease in the federal prison population supposed to result from repeal of prohibition is still only a promise. The number will soon tax federal facilities, although millions have been spent in the last five years to eliminate the crowd. The neglect, the harsh treatment and the practices that caused so many riots and outbreaks in 1925-1929-1930.

Federal prisoners now total about 14,800; extreme capacity is 16,000. The unexpected jump is due to the number of new crimes which have been given a federal tag by recent Congresses. At the exhortation of federal spokesmen Congress has turned over to the central government many offenses formerly handled by state agencies. Internal revenue violations furnish almost as large a criminal docket as bootleggers and hip-toters used to.

Two developments aggravate the problem. So far federal and state officials and private industry have evolved no program for keeping prisoners from passing their days in idleness. And some federal officials

NEW YORK

By James McMullin

WAITING

An important angle to the huge gold flow from Europe to this country has been generally overlooked. Much of the metal being shipped here has come out of hoarding. This means that gold which has been lying idle in vaults—playing no part in the world's economic life—has now come back into circulation as part of the world's monetary gold stock. Thus the basis for world credit expansion is enormously increased.

This will remain true even if some of the metal is subsequently re-exported. It cannot go back into private hands—only to central banks in other nations.

New Yorkers remark on the Federal Reserve Board's striking indifference to the gold influx. Normally it would be expected at least to recognize the inflationary impact of the movement and take precautionary measures against possible future developments that might get out of hand. But it hasn't even shown the slightest interest—leading some observers to remark that the Board members must be just waiting around to lose their jobs. Appointment of a new board under the 1925 banking act is only a few months off.

TOUGH

A pressure campaign is getting underway to compel further revision of the Securities Act. Investment bankers who haven't registered a kick for months are suddenly discovering a flaw in the law that must be rectified. The Investment Bankers' Association convention at the end of this month will devote a lot of attention to the question of corrective amendments.

The biggest squawk is directed at the twenty-day interval required between registration and sale of a security issue. A lot of salesmen have been beating the gun, and there doesn't seem to be any way to stop them. This has led to a general demoralization—because firms which try to observe the law strictly are obviously at a disadvantage. Preliminary prospectuses have been misused as a basis for soliciting orders illegally. Also it's objected that the compulsory delay prevents the proper timing of an issue—not an important factor in the existing seller's market but one could be troublesome when buyers are again in a position to call their shots. Likewise there's renewed agitation to ease up on the Act's liability provisions.

The difficulty is that investment houses can't agree on the proper remedies. They all know they don't like the law as is—but they don't know what they want instead. They would like the Securities Exchange Commission to recommend changes—but what changes? It's one more indication of a tough winter ahead for the SEC.

SAFETY

Insurance companies and automobile manufacturers have quietly joined forces to combat the terrific toll from motor accidents. Publicity measures that have so far been tried have not proven effective. A program is being worked out for presentation at the meeting of the National Safety Council in December—to be followed by a spirited campaign along new lines.

One suggestion that will be pressed is the matter of far more rigid tests in order to qualify for a driver's license. States will be urged to take drastic steps to keep incompetent and careless drivers off their roads. Another proposal will include the gradual reconstruction of highways on lines which will make head-on collisions impossible and reduce curve hazards.

The auto makers have only recently been converted to the idea that driving license restrictions are in their interest. Fewer licenses mean fewer car sales. But they now realize that the mounting public protest against the thousands of needless casualties is coming home to them and is likely to do them more harm in the end than a reduction of sales revenue. Governor Hoffman of New Jersey—mentioned as a GOP presidential candidate—will play a prominent part in the safety drive.

ADS

Consumers' Research has a membership of only about $5,000—but national advertisers credit it (perhaps "charge it") would be more accurate) with a wide influence on popular reactions to traditional advertising methods. Experts in the ad field find an increasingly cynical public response to sweeping claims of superiority.

You will therefore see a gradual but significant change in copy appeal—featuring more modest claims and the humorous note. The testimonial racket is about at an end.

IRON

The automobile is the deadly economic rival of the railroad—yet ironically prosperity in the motor business offers about the only chance New York Central has of getting back on its feet.

The Michigan Central division handles the bulk of car shipments from the Detroit area to eastern centers of distribution. So there's one railroad at least that hopes the auto industry will have a banner year.

SANCTIONS

New York observers remark it's no wonder that Italy declines to get all upset about League of Nations sanctions. Evidently they are to be chiefly financial. And financial sanctions have for all practical purposes been in effect for some time.

This has not been due to any concerted anti-Italian campaign by other countries. It's just that banks

WIDENING OF COURTS SEVER STREET TO BE MARITAL TIES COUNCIL TOPIC OF 5 COUPLES

A special meeting of the Santa Ana city council has been called for tomorrow night at 7:30 o'clock to consider the approval of the South Main street improvement plan, ever which the council battled last Monday night.

The meeting was scheduled for tonight, but according to Mayor Fred W. Rowland was called for tomorrow instead, because two members of the council could not be present tonight.

A federal grant of $23,000 will be made the California State Highway department for the widening of South Main street, five feet on the west side, if, according to a past agreement the city will allow $15,450 of its funds accruing from the one-quarter cent gasoline tax to be applied to the improvement.

Joe Smith, councilman, battled the proposition in the council meeting last week on the grounds that it was not necessary to widen the street, that there was no demand for it, and that it would cause the removal of a number of trees which "we have taken 40 years to grow." Protest has been voiced by residents of that district against the proposed improvement.

It was agreed at that time that the city engineer complete plans for the project and that a special meeting of the board be called.

PERMITS FOR BUILDING PASS $40,000 MARK RECORD BROKEN BY DRUNK ARRESTS

Building permits for Santa Ana for the first 11 days of October jumped to $40,152 making October one of the leading months and indicative that it will be one of the banner months of the year, with the taking out of a license by the Goodyear Tire and Rubber company for a service station at South Main and Walnut streets.

The permit calls for the erection of a de luxe station to cost $10,486 and will include six pumps, a grease rack, tire rack, and other equipment for the handling of service for automobiles.

Work on the new plant is to start immediately, it was said. The city council approved the building of the station at its meeting last Monday night.

JOHNSON FUNERAL SET FOR TUESDAY

Funeral services for Ervin Leroy Johnson, 28, who died at the home of his father, in Carbon Canyon, October 12, will be held tomorrow afternoon at 2 o'clock from the K. T. Heinaver Mortuary in China. The Rev. Elmer S. Anderson, of the China Methodist church will officiate, with interment to follow in Fairhaven cemetery.

Mr. Johnson, who had been seriously ill for the past seven months, is survived by his widow, Mrs. George Johnson, Los Angeles; his father, Charles A. Johnson; a daughter, Marilyn Joan; two brothers, Cecil E. and Beverly A. Johnson, and an aunt, Mrs. Ed Noe, of Santa Ana.

VEGETABLE QUINTUPLETS GROWN

SIDELIGHTS

A big neutrality meeting is scheduled in New York for Armistice Day... It's sponsored by the League of Women Voters... Retail sales in New York are showing marked improvement against last year... The big banks will heed the President's embargo order scrupulously... It gives them a swell excuse to refuse export credits they prefer not to grant... Japan—like Germany—is a sure gainer from the European tangle.

MIX-UPS

The way cabinetmakers Hull, Roper and Swanson have been clashing in their announcements indicates President Roosevelt would have done well to take them along on the boat with his two other scrappers, Messrs. Hopkins and Ickes.

DISPLEASURE

A pal of Joseph Kennedy, retired chairman of the SEC, says Mr. Kennedy resigned because he did not care to have charge of administering the new holding companies law. There may be something in that, but it is also true that Kennedy long had planned to leave this fall. Innermost circles now are hinting that Kennedy will be back in Washington in a cabinet position within 15 months. That allows time for a cabinet reorganization after Mr. Roosevelt's re-election, both of which all New Dealers take for granted.

SMITH DECLARES AGITATION FOR WIDENING SOUTH MAIN COMES FROM OUTSIDE CITY

The proposal to widen South Main street, which comes before the city council at a special meeting tomorrow night today drew the fire of Councilman Joseph P. Smith, who declared that the plan is too costly, not necessary, and will not relieve congestion in the business section of the city.

Smith, who is a member of the committee appointed to investigate the proposal and make a report to the city council, declared in an interview today there is no popular demand for such improvement and it did not originate with the present city council, but must have come from some agency outside of the municipality.

Smith brought out the fact that the city must furnish the five foot right of way, the cost of which is indefinite and probably will run into thousands of dollars.

"After acquiring the first five foot strip," said Smith, it is proposed to go on the other side and continue this method until South Main street is widened to First street. Each additional widening will cost the city a great deal more than we are supposed to receive from federal funds and will obligate the city council to a continuous course of spending gas tax money under the South Main street widening plan."

FIGHTERS BREAK WINDOW

No one was arrested and no one was injured but a plate glass window was broken out in an assault of fight at 12:50 a. m. Sunday, near Fourth and French streets, between Nick Pappas, operator of the Stag Pool Hall and W. F. Abbott, according to a police report.

Abbott was taken to the police station by officers and given a sobriety test and released. Pappas refused to sign a complaint against the man.

Editor, Register

Dear Sir:

Certainly the church-going people of Santa Ana must be a hard and unreflexive lot—to have come and gone from their respective churches Sunday after Sunday, year upon year, and never to have been set agast by that monument of all that is death and baseness of spirit—the cannon, standing master of the field between two outstanding churches of this city.

That they have not long since torn down this defiler and sacrilege against the Gospel of Triumphant Fulfillment is indeed a mystery. Can it be that they are blind to humanity's plight, so possessed with salvaging their own welfare that they have forgotten the Master's mission?

Yet this cannon, flanked by organized religion on both sides, is very symbolical. The Master taught: "He who is not with me is against me." Symbolically, one can hear the historic organized churchgoers offering up their prayers: "Oh, Lord Jesus, we pray in thy name, send to their lives (the enemy) speedy defeat, blight their hopes, lay waste to their lands, destroy their youth; Oh, Lord, bring down upon that land, in heaven's name, misery, suffering, defeat in realizing their lives' purposes, and death, GLORIA IN EXCELSIS DEO, in thy name, Amen."

The point I wish to make clear is this: Organized Christianity is either trying to spread the Gospel of Triumphant Fulfillment or it is engaged in doing something else! And this symbol of defeatism is standing dramatically supported by two branches of organized Christianity. What does it mean?

symbol. Their membership is almost unanimous in its condemnation of that of which the writer of this letter considers this cannon symbolical.—(EDITOR).

The usual way of reclaiming land in Holland—about one-third of the country's area would be under water if there were no dikes or dunes—is to enclose a marshy region with dikes and pump out the water. As a result, canals must often be higher than the land they drain, so that from a boat one may look down and see people cycling and walking along roads and paths by the waterway.

Saints Intact For Long Beach Game

Repulse Vaqueros On Goal, Save 13-7 Win

BY EDDIE WEST

Knocking down to the serious part of the football schedule, Santa Ana High school's squad starts "playing for keeps" Saturday when it goes to Long Beach. This one formally and officially opens the 1935 Coast Preparatory league season, a brief but brusque campaign for which four potent prep machines—Santa Ana, Long Beach, San Diego and Alhambra—have been gathering momentum since the first of September.

Santa Ana completed its pre-conference prep in Santa Barbara last Saturday, with a 13-7 decision over a big but slow club which two weeks ago lost to Long Beach, 13-20. Using Santa Barbara as a common denominator, Santa Ana and Long Beach seem to be approximately even.

Thanks to Coach Bill Foote's careful foresight and determination, the Saints came up to the Long Beach test with their manpower intact. There were a few bruises from the joust in the land of the Vaqueros—Quarterback Mac Beall spent an hour in a hospital having X-rays taken of a wrenched back—but, barring unexpected developments, Foote can start his best combination. Capt. Erwin Youst, left end, did not play at all at Santa Barbara and neither did Guard Lyle Moyer. Fullback Bill Musick was in less than five minutes and Halfback "Whitney" Mann only about ten. Foote used his regulars sparingly, even the uninjured ace, Carroll Joy, spending half his time on the bench while his understudies "carried on."

The Saints defeated Santa Barbara by six points—and two inches. Scoring twice in rapid succession in the second quarter, Santa Ana watched in stolid desperation as the Dons got one of 'em back in the same period on an 86-yard run and missed the other by the width of Referee "Spud" Harder's fingernail.

Stop Dons On Goal-line
Santa Barbara's drive was good for 78 yards. The Dons finally got a first down on the Saints' 7-yard mark. They hit right guard four times in succession. After the last one there was a huge pileup on the goal-line. The announcer said it was a touchdown and Vaqueros started cheering with delight. But when Referee Harder yanked everybody off the ball-packer, Fullback Lloyd Rossi, the porkchop still was two inches short of the scrappy Saints' goal. Jack Robinson hooped the ball out to the 40-yard line and the ordeal ended less than a minute later.

All of the scoring was done in the second quarter.
Santa Ana started its first drive just as the first ended.
See pointed to the Saint 40. Joy broke through center for 17 yards. On the first play of the new period he rammed 12 more on a cutback. Mann faked a pass, ran six to the Dons' 20. Joy went through the middle for eight. Then Mann strided left end for the last 12. Beall's try for the extra point was wide.

Beall Runs 58 Yards
Robinson kicked off and the ball dribbled along the ground to the Dons' 47 where Center Phillips recovered. On the second play, Lewett tried a pass and overshot his mark. Beall coming in on the dead run to intercept the ball and race 58 yards to another touchdown. Bob Reid, Jim Crowther and Robinson did some nice down-field blocking. Reid ironing out the last

Vinnie Won't Quit

Injured in an auto accident so badly that his racket activities may be ended, Vincent Richards, one-time Davis Cup and pro tennis star, refuses to quit competitive sports. Here he is, arm in sling, getting the feel of a golf club, with the idea of turning links pro.

ONLY 4 TEAMS UNDEFEATED ON PACIFIC COAST

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 14. (UP)—Three weeks of startling surprises left only four major football teams on the Pacific slope unbeaten and untied today, and one unscored upon.

Although the season is but one-fourth completed, only Washington, Washington State, California and U. C. L. A. have survived their opening tests without defeats or ties. Only California has a perfect defensive record.

The ranks will be cut still further this week when Washington and Washington State clash at Pullman. California also is in danger as the Bears meet in Santa Clara on the map. They rested last Saturday while Washington State was having a hard struggle with Montana. A blocked kick late in the game gave the Cougars a win, 13-7, after a close shave. Several keymen were hurt in the bruising struggle.

Stanford, which went through the regular season with only a tie against it in 1934, fell by the wayside in the season's biggest upset. The doughty U. C. L. A. Bruins took the champions, 7-6, in a game which revealed weaknesses in blocking and pass-receiving on the part of Cardinals and a stout smart defense on the part of the Los Angeles crew.

Both teams will rest for two weeks after their strenuous encounter. The Cardinals prepare for their invasion of Seattle to play Washington October 26 and on the same day U. C. L. A. meets Oregon at Los Angeles.

Bears Bear Down On Broncos
California came out of a tough Oregon game, won by the Bears by a 6-0 score, with only minor injuries to its squad and the Bears will be able to put forth a strong outfit against Santa Clara in an attempt to break a three-year run of victories for "Clipper" Smith's men.

The Santa Clarans prepared for this important game by taking Fresno State into camp, 27-0. University of Southern California, which showed little in taking a 19-0 licking from University of Illinois, will meet another of the low-ranking conference clubs in Oregon State at Los Angeles.

The Beavers already have been overwhelmed by U. C. L. A. Outside the conference, University of San Francisco, successful over University of Nevada by 27-7 score in their first victory, journeys to Spokane Sunday to meet a Gonzaga team which has lost three and won one. Loyola plays a strong University of Arizona team in a Friday night game in Los Angeles.

St. Mary's will have this week off while "Slip" Madigan and his assistants seek to solidify an offense which rolled up a 33-0 score over College of Pacific, the worst defeat Alonzo Stagg has had since coming to the West coast. Pacific goes into action Saturday night against San Jose State.

HURLER'S HOME RUN WINS FOR GROVERS

Pitcher Peterson won his own game when he blasted a home run with one aboard in the fifth inning of a Garden Grove-Signal Hill baseball game at Garden Grove Sunday, giving Garden Grove a 2-0 win. The third and final game of a series between the clubs will be played at Garden Grove next Sunday. The score:

Homers In First Inning Beat Brea

A running start, good for three runs in the first inning, enabled Perfection Bread company's baseball team to trounce the Brea Merchants, 5-3, at Brea Sunday. A single by Lusk and homers by Schrick and Wilcutt accounted for the inaugural runs. Woody Griffith homed for Brea. The score:

Greenskeeper 'Fishes' For Cutworms

SAN CLEMENTE, Oct. 14.—Ever go fishing on a golf course? Neither had the three golfers who walked into the caddyhouse here Sunday, rubbing their eyes, each assuring the other he wasn't seeing things.

"We want to play golf, but first let us what that man is doing fishing on the course," they asked Jock MacAdam, golf professional in charge of the San Clemente municipal golf links.

"Oh that's just Joe catching his worms," explained Jock. Joe Jeans, greenskeeper, tramps around the greens several hours daily "fishing" for cutworms, tiny worms that live under the sod, cutting the grass roots for food.

Supplied with all the necessary fishing paraphernalia, fish pole, hooks, bucket of worms and even a fishing hat, Jeans prides himself on being a "good dry land fisherman."

"I get a couple of buckets full every day and soon the entire course will be rid of the pests," said Jeans. "I cut holes in the sod and drop the short line with the hook baited with pieces of roots, and wait for the worms to bite. In the coast region cutworms have become a serious menace to the grass that will die unless they are removed."

GOSLIN, SERIES HERO, TO RIDE BENCH IN '36?

BY HENRY McLEMORE
(United Press Staff Correspondent)
NEW YORK, Oct. 14.—Putting the sport shot here and there:

"Goose" Goslin, hero of the 1935 world series, has little chance of being a Detroit regular next year . . . the wise boys say Al Simmons, Cokernack's old side-kick when Mickey was at Philadelphia will have the job.

Isn't it a bit silly to appoint an umpire who has managed or played for one of the combatants to work the world series? . . . Even if he is unbiased as the day is long, the fans are bound to remember his former affiliation.

Jack Kearns, never one to brag—more than an hour at a time—says he has, in Henry Edward (Hank) Bath, 19-year-old Colorado heavyweight, a man who can lick Braddock and Louis on the same night . . . Mr. Kearns, you're a liar! . . . Those magazine stories you see under the signature of Helen Hull belong to Helen Jacobs, our national tennis champion . . . Ace Bailey, the hockey player who suffered a fractured skull in a run-in with Eddie Shore two years ago, has been signed to coach the University of Toronto teams.

Fred Perry, the No. 1 tennis player of the world, is vacationing at Palm Springs . . . Dr. Alex Alekhine, world's chess champion, would not think of beginning an important match until his pet cat had carefully sniffed the board . . . the doctor says it brings him luck . . . there may be better football players in this world than Ken Strong of the New York Giants, but where are they?

Mrs. Billy Herman, whose husband was the second best player in the world series, is a crack pistol shot . . . she should have plugged Tommy Bridges and may have won the Game world have won . . . Branch Rickey, head of the St. Louis Cardinals "chain gang," has his eyes set on the "fresh" money Charley Adams is expected to use in building up the Boston Braves . . . Rickey is ready to sell all his players save the two Deans.

Fred Frick, son of the National league president, wants to make the golf, not the baseball team, at De Pauw university . . . "Sonny" Workman is regarded as the best whip rider of all the jockeys since the immortal Snapper Garrison of "Garrison finish" fame . . . famed Earl Sande, by the way, was one of the worst . . . Al Schacht, the Boston Red Sox coach and clown, gets $250 for each of his comedy performances before a ball game.

Fred Carideo of the current Notre Dame team is a double first cousin of Frank Carideo . . . more than one football coach is serving players brandied sugar as a "pick-up" between halves this season.

STUDIES ENGLISH

Roberto Estallilla, the Washington Senators' rookie third sacker, and a native Cuban, will remain in the capital this winter to study English.

DONS BRUSH UP PASS DEFENSE FOR OWL GAME

SAN CLEMENTE, Oct. 14.—(UP)—Three weeks of startling surprises left only four major football teams on the Pacific slope unbeaten and untied today, and one unscored upon.

Although the season is but one-fourth completed, only Washington, Washington State, California and U. C. L. A. have survived their opening tests without defeats or ties. Only California has a perfect defensive record.

ANAHEIM TEAM MAY VOTE TO CONTINUE PLAY

Whether Anaheim high school's football squad will complete its schedule or cancel the entire program because of the tragic death of Quarterback John Ochoa will be decided late today at a special meeting of players.

Defending champions of the Orange County league, the Colonists are listed to open their conference season against Newport Harbor Friday.

Ochoa died in a Fullerton hospital Saturday as a result of a cerebral hemorrhage sustained in making a head-on tackle in the fourth quarter of a contest in Riverside Friday night. His body will lie in state at the funeral chapel of Backs, Terry and Campbell from 2 to 6 p. m. tomorrow. Requiem mass will be said in St. Boniface's Catholic church in Anaheim Wednesday at 9 a. m.

An unofficial poll of squad sentiment indicated the players would vote to continue the season because they believed Ochoa would want them to, and Joe and Frank Ochoa, brothers of the quarterback, the latter a member of the Santa Ana Jaycee squad, expressed that opinion yesterday. School authorities, it was understood, will leave it up to the players.

BLAME GRID INJURY FOR DEATH OF BACK

EUGENE, Ore., Oct. 14.—(UP)—A football injury was held responsible in some circles today for the death of Walter ("Blondy") Back, 22, Palo Alto, Cal., member of the University of Oregon football team.

Back died in a Eugene hospital yesterday following an operation for removal of a growth on the calf of his leg.

It was believed that the growth developed from an injury Back received in football practice last May. He reported with the squad this season but was unable to continue playing.

Back formerly attended San Mateo junior college where he was a gridiron star. He played fullback on the Oregon varsity last season.

BROKEN NECK FATAL

KEDRICK, Mich., Oct. 14.—(UP)—Adrian Addelman, 17-year-old guard on the Blissfield high school football team, died yesterday in a hospital from a broken neck suffered in a game with Hudson at Blissfield Friday.

FIGHT TO SAVE YOUTH

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 14.—(UP)—Stanford hospital physicians fought desperately today to save the life of 14-year-old Donald Hartman of San Jose, who died in a football game said to have been caused by an injury received in football practice.

LETTER 'MAN'

The first coed to win a regular letter at Penn State, and thought to be the only one in the country, is Dorothy Anderson, above, of Butler, Pa. The lassie was the star of the Nittany Lions' varsity tennis team, having defeated her male opponents in six out of seven matches with eastern colleges.

NATIONAL GRID PARADE HEADED BY MID-WEST

By GEORGE KIRKSEY
(United Press Staff Correspondent)
NEW YORK, Oct. 14.—The nation's football parade today was headed by a select group of mid-western teams—Minnesota, Iowa, Purdue, Illinois, Ohio State and Michigan State—which set a dizzy pace in last week's topsy-turvy game.

Big Ten teams scored outstanding intersectional victories which stamped the Western conference as the strongest football league in the land.

In New York, Purdue crushed Fordham, 20-9, in Los Angeles, Bob Zuppke's little Illinois team knocked off Southern California, 19-0; in Lincoln, Minnesota smashed Nebraska, 12-7. In Iowa City, Iowa conquered Colgate, 12-6. Those four victories were the high spots of one of the biggest field days the Big Ten has ever enjoyed at the expense of outsiders.

Ohio State, favorite to win the Big Ten title, showed a flash of its smoldering power by crushing Drake, 35-7. Michigan State made a definite bid for national recognition by overwhelming Kansas, 42-9.

While those six teams were going to the front of the parade, Stanford and Alabama, New Year's Rose Bowl rivals, met defeat for the first time and were knocked out of the National championship race. The University of California at Los Angeles stopped Stanford, 7-6. Mississippi State, already beaten by Vanderbilt, tumbled Alabama, 20-7. Other prominent teams beaten for the first time were Indiana, Fordham, Vanderbilt, Auburn, Georgia Tech, Harvard, Oregon and Oklahoma.

Teams which scored impressive victories were Temple, which knocked off Vanderbilt, 6-3; New York university, triumphant over Carnegie Tech, 25-6; Pittsburgh, which won from West Virginia, 24-6; Notre Dame, victor over Wisconsin, 27-0; North Carolina, winner over Maryland, 33-0; Rice, 7 which beat Creighton, 14-0; Southern Methodist, which won from Washington U. (St. Louis), 35-6; and California, conqueror of Oregon, 6-0.

EUREKA! COACH HAPPY

At this time of year, when most football coaches are predicting dire fates for their squads, Dr. Mal Stevens, New York University mentor, remarks: "I think I honestly can say that our material this year is better than it was a year ago."

JURE, BENZOR HEAD NEW FISTIC LINEUP

Emil ("Cyclone") Jure, the Ontario featherweight who gave Don Benzor the latter's hardest fight some weeks ago at Ontario, has been signed to meet the Anaheim scrapper in one-half of a double main event scheduled at the Orange County Athletic club Thursday night.

Lupe Cordova, the fighting Basque from Pomona, who is recognized as one of the leading featherweights in the amateur ranks, holds down the other half of the bill.

Richard Lemos of Los Angeles is being sought as Cordova's opponent. "Dusty" Davidson, Negro heavyweight who scored a two-round kayo last week, meets Henry Lowe, another gentleman of color, in the special event.

Masked Marvel, 210, vs. Dr. P. A. Mullikan, 192, one fall, 30-minute time limit.
Jose Valdez, 200, vs. George Paulos, 202, one fall, 30-minute time limit.

Pat Fraley, a burly Boston Irishman, who has replaced Ernie (Dirty) Dusek in this sector as the "most hated" wrestler because of his hair-pulling, eye-gouging and slugging, should get all the bargains for tonight at the Orange County Athletic club when he steps on the mat to meet Ivan (The Terrible) Mannagoff in a catch-as-catch-can battle. The match is limited to one hour.

In a brief time of one hour rough and tumble Fraley can cause a lot of trouble, incite an army of fans and lay low the average heavyweight matman. Fraley meets no ordinary bone-bender in Mannagoff, who can be as rough as the next or as scientific as Nick Lutze, Jim Browning or Sam Szabo.

Mannagoff's one-hour draw, without a fall, against Paul Boesch three or four weeks ago proved the Russian's rights to be called a highly scientific grappler. Since then he displayed plenty of roughing ability in the Dean-Boesch-Mannagoff handicap battle and his Bisignano match was no pink tea party.

Flying tackles plus the Italian flip, the pet hold of Al Bisignano, will dominate the semi-final when the two former greatest of the gridiron, Casey Kazanjian and Bisignano, clash in their 45-minute tussle. Kazanjian made a hit last week when he won on a foul from Fraley while Bisignano lost none of his following in spite of the disputed ending of his match with Mannagoff.

The handsome Italian youth from Fordham came within an ace of beating Szabo at Los Angeles last week while Stanford's Kazanjian held Nick Lutze to a draw.

The biggest surprise of the night is apt to take place when the bare-footed wrestling chiropractor, Dr. P. A. Mullikan steps into the ring to meet the original "Masked Marvel" in a one fall 30-minute bout. Mullikan is known for his roughness and incidentally his science. The opening bout features Jose Valdez, Mexican 200-pounder and George Paulos, a Greek who is making his first appearance here.

'Jackets Defeat Chaffey In Last Quarter, 19 to 7

Breaking a 7-7 tie in the fourth quarter with two rapid-fire touchdowns, Fullerton's Yellowjackets got off successfully in their conference start by defeating Chaffey, 19-7. The game was played at Fullerton Saturday.

With a little over a minute to go in the first half, Chaffey tried a flat pass on their own 40 only to have Quarterback Farmer intercept for the Hornets and ramble 50 yards for a score.

Chaffey tied up in the fourth quarter when Utman, tackle, broke through to block Burns' kick, pick up the ball and run 25 yards for a touchdown.

A 65-yard kick by Burt Kidd put the Panthers on their own goal line. Nesbit, Hornet full, took the punt-out on the Chaffey 25 and returned to the 16. A pass put the ball on the one-yard line from where Nesbit scored.

Nesbit counted again in the fourth quarter with less than two minutes to play, going through right guard for 60 yards.

Evacuation Of San Clemente CCC Camp Protested

OFFICERS HINT OTHER CHANGES IN SOUTHLAND

SAN CLEMENTE, Oct. 14.—In the face of persistent rumors to the effect that evacuation of San Clemente CCC Camp 1945 has been ordered for the near future, citizens of San Clemente are circulating petitions requesting the continuance of the camp.

The rumors were partially confirmed this week by Capt. Fred M. Petty, who stated that unless a reversal of orders is received this week that the entire company will evacuate.

March field headquarters stated that the rumor was "pretty substantial" and that presumably the evacuation orders would be carried through. No date has been set for abandonment of the camp.

Insufficient enrollment is being given as the reason for the move. Army officers at March field today intimated that other changes in the Southern California Civilian Conservation corps set up may be expected in the near future, but said that definite orders had not been received.

The San Clemente camp is rated as model company in the March field district. The camp awarded to the outstanding camp in the district for the last six months was awarded Camp 1945 by Maj. L. A. Walton, at a recent camp commanders' meeting held in San Clemente.

The GOLDEN FEATHER

BEGIN HERE TODAY
JEAN DUNN, pretty, 21, is secretary to DONALD MONTAGUE, lawyer. BOBBY WALLACE, automobile salesman, has frequently asked her to marry him, but Jean delays her answer.

LARRY GLENN, federal agent, long a friend of Jean and Bobby, is trying to trail WINGY LEWIS, bank robber. He confides details of the case to his friend, MIKE HAGAN, of the local police force.

Jean and Bobby go to the Golden Feather again and see Sandy there with Mr. and Mrs. LEWIS. He shows Bobby some bonds worth $12,000 and says if Bobby can sell them for him he will buy the car and Bobby will have $500 profit.

Bobby arranges to sell them to Jean's employer.

Larry and Hagan see EVELYN BRADY with three men at the Golden Feather. They suspect one of the men may be a burglar. Larry bribes a waiter to bring the man's glass, hoping to secure fingerprints. The waiter takes the money, but brings a different glass.

NOW GO ON WITH THE STORY
CHAPTER XI
Several days later, Larry Glenn leaned back in his swivel chair, extended his long legs under his desk, dropped the letter he had been reading, and frowned thoughtfully at the blank wall of his office. For nearly a minute he sat thus, his hands clasped behind his head; then he reached for his telephone and gave the number of police headquarters.

"Detective bureau—Sergeant Hagan," he said, when he got his number. Then, a moment later, "Mike? This is Glenn. Can you drop up here for a few minutes? I got a funny one for you."

He put the phone away and continued to look pensively at nothing. When, 15 minutes later, Mike Hagan came in, Larry ruefully handed him the letter.

"Seems as if my friend Evelyn is running around with somebody else," he said. "I send in those fingerprints off that glass, and there's no record of 'em. They're no more like Wingy Lewis's than mine are."

Hagan read the letter and dropped it on the desk.

"Look," he said, "did you see that waiter get the glass?"

Larry nodded.

"What'd he do with it? Bring it right to you?" asked Hagan.

Larry thought a moment.

"No, come to think of it. He went out to the kitchen with his tray of empties, and then he brought our order—and slipped me the glass."

His eyes met Hagan's.

"So," he said presently. "You think he switched glasses on me?"

Hagan ran his finger through his hair and took out a cigar.

"I think they're kind of a tough crowd at the Golden Feather," he said. "I got a notion that waiter thought things over on his way out and decided not to help turn in one of their star customers if he could help it. Maybe I'm wrong, of course. Maybe that guy isn't Wingy Lewis after all. Maybe that gal isn't even Evelyn Brady. But that afternoon. To put the order through he got authority from the deputy inspector temporarily in charge of the bureau. The order was read at afternoon roll call. It passed through the hands of three clerks. And half an hour after it was issued, a man slipped quietly out of the detective bureau, went to a drug store across the street, entered a telephone booth and called a number.

Other pieces 1800 years old were also displayed to the audience as well as illustrations in water color, painted by Mrs. Swan in the Orient.

"He spoke into the instrument in a low voice, his lips close to the mouthpiece."

"Hell-Frosty? This is Tommy. Listen, I got a tip for you. Pass the word to Oklahoma, will you? ... Oklahoma—you know, the tail—sure, him. ... Listen, tell Oklahoma that he's gonna be fingered for the Acme payroll job. ... Acme, you lug—A-C-M-E—get it? Okay. At the club. Tonight. Tell Al."

Then he hung up the receiver and unobtrusively went back to the detective bureau.

And after a while, as Art Lanning walked from his office to the kitchen of the Golden Feather, one of the waiters drew him aside.

"I gotta tip they're going to put the finger on that sandy-haired guy from Oklahoma here tonight for the Acme payroll stickup," he said quietly. Lanning looked at him, nodded, and went back to his office. There he took his telephone and dialed a number.

"Hello—Eve? This is Lanning. Listen. Tell Sandy to stay away tonight. I just got the word they are getting ready to hang a payroll rap on him. ... Yeah, the Acme job. ... They're supposed to be here tonight to pick him up. ... No, that's all I know."

Evelyn Brady strolled into the living room of her apartment. Lewis was at his ease in a big arm chair, smoking a cigar and listening to the play-by-play description of a ball game coming over the radio. Sandy was stretched out on the davenport, his muscular body relaxed, panther-like, his shirt open at the throat, a detective story in his tanned fist.

"Sandy," said Evelyn, "Lanning called. He got a buzz from somebody down town. Somebody's going to be looking for you at the Golden Feather tonight."

Sandy looked at her inquiringly. "What for?"

"Some payroll stickup. Acme, or something like that."

Lewis peered at him over the end of his cigar. Sandy went back to his book.

"Well, what about it?" asked the girl.

Sandy lowered the book. "Keep your shirt on," he said. "I'll just stay away, that's all."

"Going to stay in town?"

"Sure. I got an assignment here."

She laughed. "Yes, I know. A blond assignment. She's kind of cute, too, Sandy."

"Yeah, she's sure all right. She's going to be useful, too."

HOLLYWOOD HAPPENINGS

By DAN THOMAS, Staff Correspondent

HOLLYWOOD, Oct. 14.—William Henry will be the first member of the screen colony to fly to Honolulu when he embarks on the Pan-American clipper ship early next month. The young actor is making the flight to be with his mother on her birthday, an event he never yet has missed.

SPECIAL DELIVERY

I've heard of sending messages in a great many different ways but never until now have I heard of a turtle being used as a bearer. Some San Diego admirer of Frances Langford started the turtle game. And for the last week Frances has received a turtle every day, each with a message written on its back.

NO MORE WAMPUS

Goodbye Wampus Baby Stars. The Wampus, Hollywood organization of publicity men, which gained considerable national prominence through its annual selection of baby stars, has disbanded after being active for 15 years.

BEGINNER'S LUCK

A scene in "Magnificent Obsession" called for Irene Dunne to make a bet on No. 13 at a roulette table. Although the wheel was out of camera range, it was spun for sound effects. And the little white ball dropped into No. 13. But Irene has no intention of turning gambler. On the 12 successive "takes" her number didn't show once.

Shubert Festival Continues Coward Musical Romances

LOS ANGELES, Oct. 14.—"Bitter Sweet," the first show of the Shubert Festival, which opened at the Shrine Civic auditorium last Friday night with a colorful and brilliant premiere, is enjoying a popular engagement. Enthusiastic audiences cheer every performance of Noel Coward's musical romance which stars lovely Evelyn Laye. The production has lived up to every promise made as to beauty and spectacular scenes.

"Bitter Sweet" continues its engagement with nightly performances and it will close on next Sunday night, October 20. "Rose Marie," the colorful romance of the Northwest by Rudolf Friml, will open its week's engagement on Monday night, October 21. In "Rose Marie" there are several unusual highlights. Nanette Guilford will essay the title role of "Rose Marie." Her stage career has practically been confined to a repertoire of leading prima donna roles with the Metropolitan Opera Company, New York, where she was affectionately known as "the baby prima donna of the 'Met'."

Paul Gregory who will play the role of Jim Kenyon, has appeared here in "The Cat and the Fiddle," and has appeared as leading man under the Florenz Ziegfeld banner in five or six of his principal musical plays, among them being that of the "heart interest in 'Whoopee,' in which Eddie Cantor was starred. Also prominently cast are Hope Emerson, Harry K. Morton and Paul Keast. The music in "Rose Marie" was composed by Rudolf Friml and Herbert Stothart, while the book and lyrics were penned by Otto Harbach and Oscar Hammerstein II.

COLDS

Go Thru 3 Stages —and They're Far Easier Relieved in the First than in the Second or Third!

A cold ordinarily goes through 3 stages: the Dry Stage, the Watery Secretion Stage, from 1 to 3 days; and the Mucous Secretion Stage. The first stage is the time to "nail" a cold. Grove's Laxative Bromo Quinine is the treatment for colds. It is expressly a cold tablet, and not a preparation good for half a dozen other things as well. It is definite and internal, which is what a cold, an internal infection, requires. It does four important things. It opens the bowels, combats the infection in the system, relieves the headache and fever and tones and fortifies the system. Don't be satisfied with anything less than that. Get Grove's Laxative Bromo Quinine at any drugstore. Ask for it by the full name and refuse a substitute.

LAKEWOOD VILLAGE NAMES S. A. AGENT

Announcement of the appointment of a special representative for Santa Ana and surrounding area has been made by administration officials of Lakewood Village, the garden homesite project located near Long Beach on a portion of the old Montana Ranch land. The new representative, L. E. Paul, is to assume his duties immediately and is making headquarters at the Y. M. C. A.

In commenting upon the appointment, Charles B. Hopper, veteran sub-divider and general sales agent for the project, stated that interest shown by residents of the Santa Ana territory in the new garden estate community led to the naming of Paul as representative here.

In celebrating the first anniversary of the Village this week, several new homes were announced open for inspection, among them an unusual "Konoa-type" house which is declared to be the only one of its kind in Southern California. The building pace set during the initial year won the distinction for Lakewood Village of being the fastest growing such project in California, the general sales agent pointed out.

LECTURER

Burton Holmes, below, who will give a travel revue showing his recent trip through Russia in contrast with his trip before the revolution, discussing "What I Saw in Soviet Russia," as the opening event of the Orange County Forum for the 1935-36 series in the Fullerton Union High school auditorium tomorrow at 8:15 p. m.

SOVIET TRAVEL REVUE SUBJECT OF FORUM TALK

"What I Saw in Soviet Russia" is the subject of an illustrated lecture to be given by Burton Holmes, traveler and lecturer, as the opening event of the Orange County Forum in the auditorium of the Fullerton Union High school tomorrow night at 8:15 o'clock.

This travel revue consists of a lecture with motion pictures and color slides showing Russia as Burton Holmes saw it this summer. In contrast he will show pictures he took just before the revolution. Preceding the lecture there will be an organ recital from 8 to 8:15 o'clock with Mrs. Harold Nielsen, of Fullerton, at the organ.

From Moscow to Leningrad Burton Holmes traveled with Comrade Barbara, the girl guide the Soviets provided him. The pictures of this journey give a colorful history of what has taken place since the revolution. The lecturer contrasts these scenes with pictures he took, himself, before that time.

Leningrad today, St. Petersburg of yesterday; Tsar Nicholas reviewing his troops, Soviets on parade; May Day in the Red Square, Lenin's Tomb; visiting Tolstol in 1901; the Kremlin; monasteries that were factories that are; the stairway of the massacre; visiting a collective farm; a day in Kiev; the regimented industrial workers; Stalin, Voroslov, Kalenin, Gorki and many other highlights are shown.

CONTRASTS IN TRAVEL SHOWN

YELLOWSTONE PARK, Wyo.—(UP)—A journey that once took him 30 days was completed in three hours by William H. Jackson, 92, in 1935 Jackson traveled as a bullwhacker from Salt Lake City to Yellowstone Park. His last trip was by air.

Leadership will be held at 2:45 p. m. Afternoon sessions will be adjourned at 5 p. m. with dinner served at 6 p. m. Frank Pierce will lead the song service at the final session at 7:30 p. m. with devotions conducted by Dr. Owens and reports of committees preceding the address by Dr. Guild.

The public is invited to all sessions.

ELKS CHARITY CIRCUS HERE OCTOBER 28 HAS MANY ACTS

Officials of the Santa Ana Elks lodge today announced completion of arrangements for the showing of the famous Polack Brothers Circus for six nights starting October 28 and ending the night of November 2, for the benefit of their Christmas Charity Fund.

The Polack Brothers carry a mammoth tent 300 feet long, under which is shown circus celebrities gathered from the biggest circuses in the United States, Cuba and Mexico. These various acts have been chosen for their perfection in their respective stunt or hazard, and bear the reputation of showing more star acts under one tent than anyone in the country.

Many Performers
Trapeze artists, clowns, strong men, acrobats, contortionists, Spanish web performers, girl flyers, the daring "loop the loop" stunt, wire walkers, trapeze head balancers, the famous head slide down a 75-foot wire, trained animals, chair and table climbing daredevils, and numerous others will vie with each other for the plaudits of the audience.

Comfortable chairs are provided, and in every respect an entire evening's entertainment can be enjoyed. No amateur talent is used, all the acts being seasoned performers. Special arrangements have been made for a children's matinee on a Saturday afternoon, especially for the school children, although parents are welcome.

This mammoth white top also will house many exhibits of various merchants and auto dealers in the city. Bearing in mind the necessity for a convenient location, the show will be held in the 900 block, East Fourth street, where ample parking facilities have been arranged.

BAR GROUP TO HEAR REPORTER SPEAK FRIDAY

Lawyers know that an official court reporter who has been on his job very long has seen and heard some very odd and unusual sides of human affairs.

Therefore, the announcement that Arthur E. Bagley, who has been a court reporter in the Los Angeles courts for many years, will be the speaker at the regular dinner meeting of the Orange County Bar association next Friday evening, has drawn the attention of local attorneys to the coming affair, scheduled at 7 p. m. in James' cafe, Santa Ana.

Being interested in the things that go on in a courtroom, the lawyers are looking forward expectantly to the experiences of one who spends most of his working hours in the courtroom.

Bagley is said to have many and varied experiences and observations to detail.

Considerable interest also was centered in the scheduled reports of Orange county bar delegates to the annual state bar convention in San Francisco.

CANADIAN DIVIDENDS RISE

MONTREAL, (UP)—Dividends paid out by Canadian corporations this summer were the highest since 1931.

P.-T. A. GROUP COMMENTS ON NEW PICTURES

Reviews and criticisms of new motion pictures by the board of review of the California Congress of Parents and Teachers were released today through Mrs. M. W. Hollingsworth, motion picture chairman of the Santa Ana P.-T. A. council. They were as follows:

"The Affairs of Susan," Universal picture with ZaSu Pitts, Hugh O'Connell, Walter Catlett and Inez Courtney. "Two lonely souls meet at Coney Island, find love and are separated when a thunder shower precipitates an accident. A reunion is effected in a surprise ending, when each returns to a lonely room. Family."

"Navy Wife," 20th Century-Fox, with Claire Trevor, Ralph Bellamy and Warren Hymer. "Something of the warmth and feeling for life which characterizes the writing of Kathleen Norris is retained in this picturization of her novel. Liberties are taken with the story structure. 'Navy Wife' offers an entertaining hour, with laughs, tears, intrigue and the inevitable happy ending. Beautiful photographic background of the Hawaiian Islands. Adults—good; 14-18—good; 8-14, uninteresting."

"The Case of the Lucky Legs," Warner Brothers-First National, with Warren William, Genevieve Tobin, Patricia Ellis and Lyle Talbot. "The sagacity of Perry Mason, criminal lawyer de luxe, apprehends the murderer of a crook. The picture is wordy and fails to sustain the breezy note of its predecessor, 'Case of the Curious Bride'. Adults and young people."

"Barbary Coast," Samuel Goldwyn-United Artists, with Miriam Hopkins, Edward G. Robinson, Joel McCrea and Frank Craven. "Mud, fog, saloons, chinks, gambling, street-corner shootings and hangings—of these was the San Francisco of Vigilante days composed. Into this picture comes a white woman from New York, Mary Rutledge, to marry a gambler who has been murdered. She becomes instead the mistress of Louis Chamalis, and of the roulette wheel which he operates. By chance she happens upon a forlorn prospector, a lover of Shelley and Keats. To them belongs the romance of the story. An excellent cast responds to the direction of Howard Hawks. Adults and young people."

"King Solomon of Broadway," Universal picture with Dorothy Page, Pinky Tomlin and Louise Henry. "A laundry story offers small opportunity either to director or cast. Despite the presence of several catchy tunes, the picture, with its background of gangsters, a night club and its habitués, has little to recommend it. Adults, mediocre; 14-18 unwholesome; 8-14 no."

MERCHANTS RESIST INVASION

Aroused by the urgent call to arms, even the merchants of Ethiopia have rushed to the colors, pledging their life and goods to resist the Italian invaders. The merchant volunteer corps, accompanied by mules and gun bearers, is pictured as it marched out of Addis Ababa on the way to be beleaguered Ogaden front.

DICTATORSHIP PLAY CONTINUES TO 19TH

PARADISE, Oct. 14.—From the turrets of a perjured courtroom in a fictitious kingdom Elmer Rice has fired a broadside against all dictatorship. His play "Judgment Day," current at the Pasadena Community playhouse, is a stirring denunciation of the puppet-like activities of rule by a dictator.

"Judgment Day," now in its second run at the Playhouse, has been returned due to the tremendous demand of a public vitally drawn to a live contemporary problem. The Playhouse production is scheduled to end October 19.

Among the outstanding personalities in a cast rated highly by the critics is Mischa Auer, film star of note, in the role of General Rakovski, Akim Tamiroff as Bassaraba, the waiter, Robert Livingston, MGM featured player, as the leader of the People's party, and Tamara Shayne, opera singer, whose claim to protection in her testimony is a remote relationship to Il Duce.

Officers Named By Pension Club Of San Clemente

SAN CLEMENTE, Oct. 14.—Officers of the recently organized San Clemente Townsend Club No. 1 were elected at the third meeting of the group Thursday evening. Walter Rogers was named as president, Claudius Wixon, vice president, and Mrs. Bertha Eason, secretary and treasurer. October 15 was announced as the date of the next meeting which will be held in the Chamber of Commerce building. A board of directors will be selected at the session, according to Rogers, who invites all interested in the movement to attend the meeting. Mrs. O. J. Hunt, of Anaheim, district organizer, is slated as the speaker of the evening.

Paramount Ready To Take Scenes

LAGUNA BEACH, Oct. 14.—The Paramount moving picture set being constructed on the shores of Three Arch Bay is nearing completion and it is thought that the shooting of the picture, "Song of the Night," starring John Boles and Miss Gladys Swarthout, will begin this week. The set represents an Italian fishing village.

OLD FLINTLOCK PISTOL BOUGHT BY BEACH MAN

A citizen of Laguna Beach is a happy individual nowadays since he has become the proud possessor of a beautifully preserved flintlock pistol. A product of old English gunsmithing, the little gun shows the personal pride of the craftsman in all its parts. Under the butt-plate there are three initials, J. P. J. and the date 1774. Does this refer to John Paul Jones, the great American privateer and the first of our sea fighters?

C. R. Pettit secured the pistol from a Santa Ana dealer who apparently did not quite appreciate its real value but it is safe to say that it will not again go into circulation. One amusing feature of the ancient weapon is the characteristic absence of the front sight. In those days hand guns were used only as a last resort when the opponent was right on top of the one holding the gun.

The latter would pull out the trusty pistol, cock it, mutter an "Ave Maria" and then if the flint threw enough sparks, the powder in the pan was dry, and the fuse channel full, then and only then would the weapon explode and if the sight was good the party on the receiving end would invariably topple over for the caliber was usually from 5-8 to 1 inch.

The expression "going off half cocked" comes from the days when these "flinties" were used by the gentlemen gunmen of that date and originated with the remarkable habit the flintlock had of missing fire due to having been only half-cocked.

A 400-mile instrument flying test, the longest ever undertaken by U. S. army aviators, was successfully completed recently at Hamilton Field, army bombing base.

Many Guests Assemble For Boyle-Tibbetts Wedding Rites

With 160 guests assembled for the impressive ceremony in United Presbyterian church, Miss Frances Tibbetts, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles L. Tibbetts, 2135 North Main street, was wedded Friday night to J. R. Lester Boyle, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Boyle, 1425 South Garnsey street.

Dr. Albert E. Kelly officiated at the rites conducted before an altar banked with giant dahlias which had been given by Dr. Emmet Raitt.

The bride was a lovely picture in her lustrous white satin gown and long veil caught up fashion with strands of tiny pearls. She carried a basket of white lilies of the valley centered with orchids.

Miss Jane McBurney, wearing pink lace, was maid of honor. Her flowers were pompon dahlias. The bridesmaids, wearing white, carried white lilies of the valley.

Miss Louise Rowland, Willa Bradford, Ruth McBurney and Jean Upshall, Phi Omega sorority sisters of Miss Tibbetts, were bridesmaids, crowned in pastel hues of green, pink, peach and blue.

Tiny Lorna Frances Williams, two year old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas E. Williams, played an important role, scattering sweet peas from a basket to match her quaint long blue ruffled frock.

Merle Boyle served as best man, while the group of ushers included Willis Sharrell, Arlow Lapham, James Norton and Roderick Smiley.

Miss Verna Helm sang a group of appropriate songs accompanied by Harry Warren, who remained at the organ for the traditional Lohengrin wedding music.

Following the ceremony, the new Mr. and Mrs. Boyle paused to receive the good wishes of their friends at a reception in the church. Mrs. Charles Tibbetts, also in the receiving line, was gracious in her gown of burgundy crepe with a corsage of gardenias, while the bridegroom's mother wore a black gown with the same fragrant flowers.

Members of the bride party assisted in serving ices and cakes; after which the young couple departed for the honeymoon which they will spend at Catalina Island. The bride wore an ensemble of blue for her traveling costume with the orchids of her wedding bouquet arranged as a corsage.

Upon their return they will make their home at Laguna Beach where Mr. Boyle is employed as an engineer. He is a graduate of Santa Ana High school and the California Institute of Technology where he was a member of Omega Sigma fraternity. His bride is also a graduate of Santa Ana High school and attended junior college here. She has been prominent in activities of Phi Omega sorority.

Bridal Anniversaries Are Celebrated At Dinner Party

Fifty years of wedded life always create interested comment. But Mr. and Mrs. S. L. Wedgewood, 829 Cypress avenue, have exceeded the half century by nine full years, and already are anticipating the observance in October, 1936, of their 60th wedding day.

Several years ago Mr. and Mrs. Wedgewood and Mr. and Mrs. Frank J. Lincoln, 1207 Orange avenue, instituted the pleasant custom of staging a joint anniversary celebration. Of course there was the long stretch of 34 years between their respective weddings, but the date of October 12, they hold in common.

This year saw a continuation of this custom, when Mrs. Mary Wilbur of Laguna Beach, mother of Mrs. Lincoln, entertained yesterday at dinner with Mr. and Mrs. Wedgewood and Mr. and Mrs. Lincoln as guests of honor. Covers were laid also for Jack and George Lincoln, young sons of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Lincoln; and Mr. and Mrs. Frank Laughlin and children, Margaret and Jim Laughlin of Long Beach. Mrs. Laughlin is another daughter of Mrs. Wilbur.

The "crystal anniversary" and the golden one were suggested by the table appointments, with quantities of bright yellow flowers used effectively throughout the home.

It was on October 12, 1876 that Miss Clara Richards and Sanborn Wedgewood were married by the Baptist minister in Marshalltown, Iowa. They lived on a farm near Marshalltown for a few years then Mr. Wedgewood worked for 17 years in a pattern-making shop. A visit to California in 1904 resulted in their decision to make this their home, and five years later they came directly to Santa Ana where they have lived ever since.

When the ban on building materials was lifted after the World war, they built the Cypress street home where they still live. Mr. and Mrs. Wedgewood have two daughters and a son, Mrs. M. R. Kellogg, Rose drive, Santa Ana; Mrs. D. D. Clay of Seneca, South Dak., and their youngest child, Benjamin Wedgewood, living in Marshalltown where he was born, and where he has worked for the same concern ever since he was a lad.

ECHO OF FIRE PREVENTION'S DRAMA SUBJECT

As a follow-up of the nationwide observance of "Fire Prevention Week," the Rio Grande Oil company, producers of "Calling All Cars!" will offer tonight a dramatic true-story dramatization dealing with arsonists and titled "Fire! Fire! Fire!" on KREG at 7:30.

Listed as one of the most outstanding transgressions of the Arson law, tonight's recreated crime will reveal how a sadistic arsonist set fire to a crowded theater, endangering the lives of hundreds of patrons. Investigating the charred remains of the building, officers discovered that the entire structure had been soaked with gasoline and that 120 sticks of dynamite had been placed beneath chairs, in the basement and various other parts of the theater.

Captain Paul T. Wolfe of the Fire Department Arson squad who played a prominent part in the authentic case to be dramatized tonight, will speak during the broadcast.

"ADOLESCENCE" IS TOPIC OF ADDRESS

"Understanding the Adolescent" is the topic of a brief address to be made by Mrs. Hugh Houghton, president of the Willard Junior High school P. T. A. this evening during the P. T. A. broadcast from KREG at 5:45, also presenting Sylvia White, violinist.

Each of the school P. T. A. groups takes a "theme" for the school year, and the topic to be discussed this evening is the theme of the Willard group.

Sylvia White will play Toselli's beautiful "Serenade" and "Gypsy Dance" by Ernst. Helen Glancey will accompany.

The program will be announced and conducted by Lorene Graves, radio and music chairman of the Santa Ana Council P. T. A.

EAT AND GROW SLIM Breakfast
A fresh pear or
1 baked apple, no cream
1 poached egg on
1 slice toast
1-2 teaspoon butter for toast
1 cup coffee with 1-4 cup hot skimmed milk, no sugar.
Calory total—325.

TODAY'S RECIPES
Spanish Steak
(5 Servings)
2 pounds round steak, cut thin
Seasoned with flour for dredging
1-4 cup bacon fat for frying

PART II
6 large tomatoes, or
11-2 cups canned tomato
2 large onions,
3 green peppers
1 bay leaf
1 clove garlic, minced
Salt, pepper and a pinch of ground cloves
Cut the steak in serving portions, dredge with seasoned flour and fry to a good brown. Transfer to a baking dish and set in the oven while the sauce is being prepared. In making the sauce, just run the vegetable through the food chopper, combine everything and cook until the onion and pepper seem done. Pour over the steaks and bake slowly until tender.

Utilize all of the oven heat in cooking your dinner: Bake squash for a vegetable to replace potatoes, bake apples for dessert, speed up the oven at the last for a pan of hot biscuits. On top of stove, cook spinach, cabbage, etc., for a green vegetable.

Pear and Maraschino Cherry Conserve
4 pounds pears, finely chopped
2 pounds sugar (about 6 cups)
Juice of 2 oranges and
2 lemons.
1 No. 2 can grated pineapple
11-2 cups whole maraschino cherries.

I hope you have your own home-made maraschino to draw from. If not, buy the bulk commercial grade.

Peel and slice the ripe pears, simmer with a cup of water until soft, then add sugar, fruit juices and pineapple. Cook until glossy looking and jellied at sides of kettle. When done, add the cherries, stir for a few minutes, then bottle.

Tomorrow's Dinner or Two
Canned corned beef hash with
Poached eggs Fresh spinach
Hot biscuits
Sliced Tomatoes French Dressing
Two hot biscuit jelly rolls with Cream Coffee

For this dinner buy 1 can of corned beef hash, a dozen eggs, 1 pound fresh spinach or a can of spinach. A couple of pounds of slicing tomatoes, a box of prepared biscuit flour, a can of strawberry jam (unless you canned your own) and such staples as coffee, fresh cream, etc. as indicated.

Preparing the Dinner
Open and heat the can of hash as directed on can. Cook fresh spinach, or freshen a can of spinach by shredding part of a head of lettuce into it while heating. Dress your spinach with mayonnaise instead of butter. Now for the biscuits. A cupful of flour will make 8 biscuits; unless biscuits are popular in your house four will be enough. Take the other two, roll the dough thin, spread with strawberry jam, roll up, cut and bake in a hot oven and serve with this cream for a hot luscious dessert.

In case you have a little hash left you can do this for breakfast: Whip two whole eggs and the extra yolk with 4 tablespoons milk. Beat the whites white stiff, fold into the beaten egg and pour over the heated hash. This is farmer-style omelette, and mighty good.

WEE SCOUTY, AS AN ENGINEER, WAS FINE. HE SHOUTED, "WELL, LOOK HERE, I'VE FOUND A LITTLE WHISTLE. MAYBE I CAN MAKE IT BLOW." It brings out a sound that's shrill, it ought to give you all a thrill. Just how to operate the thing is what I'd like to know.

"Why, there's a rope, right by your side. Just pull it hard," wees Scouty. "Twirl either make the whistle scream, or stop this funny train."

"All right," said Scouty. "Just watch me." The whistle promptly went, "Whee! Whee!" "Hurray, cried little Scouty. "The attempt was not in vain."

"Now, drive a little faster, please, and take the train beneath some trees. We're right out in the open, now, and my, the sun is hot."

"A good idea," Scouty said. "I see some large trees just ahead. I wish that we could stop a while in some real shady spot."

"Aw, we came out to ride, why stop? If you don't like this, you can hop right off," snapped little Windy. "Don't spoil everybody's fun."

And so they rode an hour or so, first very fast, then very slow. The engine stopped and Scouty said, "No more will this thing run."

Their friend, the farmer, joined the bunch and cried, "I have a happy hunch. Nearby are two small chariots. What say, we have a race?"

"We'll find some dogs to pull them and inside two of you tots can stand. The rest will get a treat as you tear all around this place."

Brave Windy volunteered to ride. "Well, I'll race with you," Duncy cried. It wasn't very long until the two fine dogs were hatched.

The farmer shouted, "All right, go! You're going to love this ride, I know. Just let the dogs run as they will. They never should be switched."

World-Wide News Events Told In Pictures

Glad to Be Back From Hollywood

With a "Nevaire again!" reply to queries as to whether she'd appear in more movies, Lily Pons, Metropolitan Opera star, pictured on her arrival in New York from Hollywood, disclosed that her California friends had nicknamed her "Toots", much to her delight. And she hinted mysteriously at a romance with a noted but unidentified conductor.

Famous Stone Dazzles Joan

At last, a charming screen actress publicly flashes a diamond without launching a thousand romance rumors. Lovely Joan Bennett is pictured holding the Jonkers diamond, now on exhibition in Los Angeles. Largest uncut stone in the world, the 726-carat jewel is valued at $1,500,000.

Coin Collector

It never occurred to Peter Lorre, until a short time ago, that there's money in coin collecting—nickels especially. The good-natured Hungarian actor, shown above, started collecting when he had to shave his head for a picture in Hollywood and everyone wanted to rub it. He let them do it, for a nickel. Business was so good that he's willing to do anything now—for a nickel.

Ruins Left in Wake of Cuban Hurricane

These pictures show the force with which a terrific hurricane struck Santa Clara province, Cuba, causing nearly 40 deaths and heavy property damage. Entire steel buildings were gutted and only the skeleton framework left standing. Trains of freight cars were toppled by force of the winds.

Court Scene as Mooney Fights for His Freedom

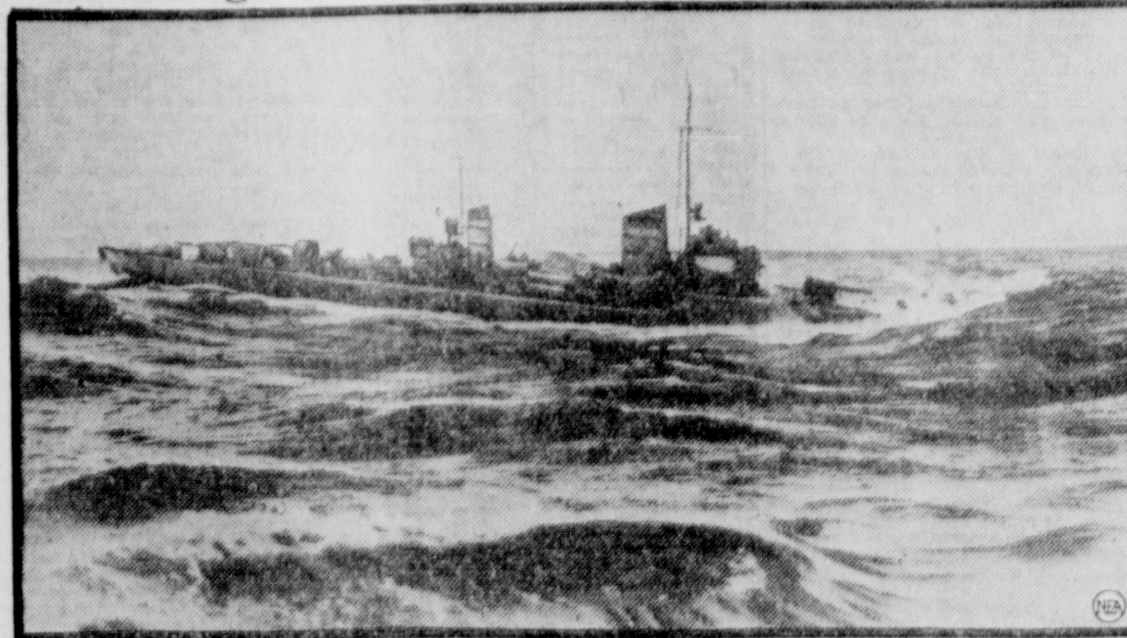

Here's the scene in a San Francisco courtroom where Tom Mooney fights in his newest freedom move through State Supreme Court habeas corpus proceedings. Principals in the legal battle, seated, left to right, are: W. F. Cleary, assistant attorney general; Capt. Charles Goff, head of the homicide squad at the time of the Preparedness Day bombing; E. F. Mitchell, assistant attorney general; Warren Billings, Attorney John Finerty, Tom Mooney, Frank P. Walsh and George Davis, defense counsel.

New Memorial Reared for Lincoln in Indiana

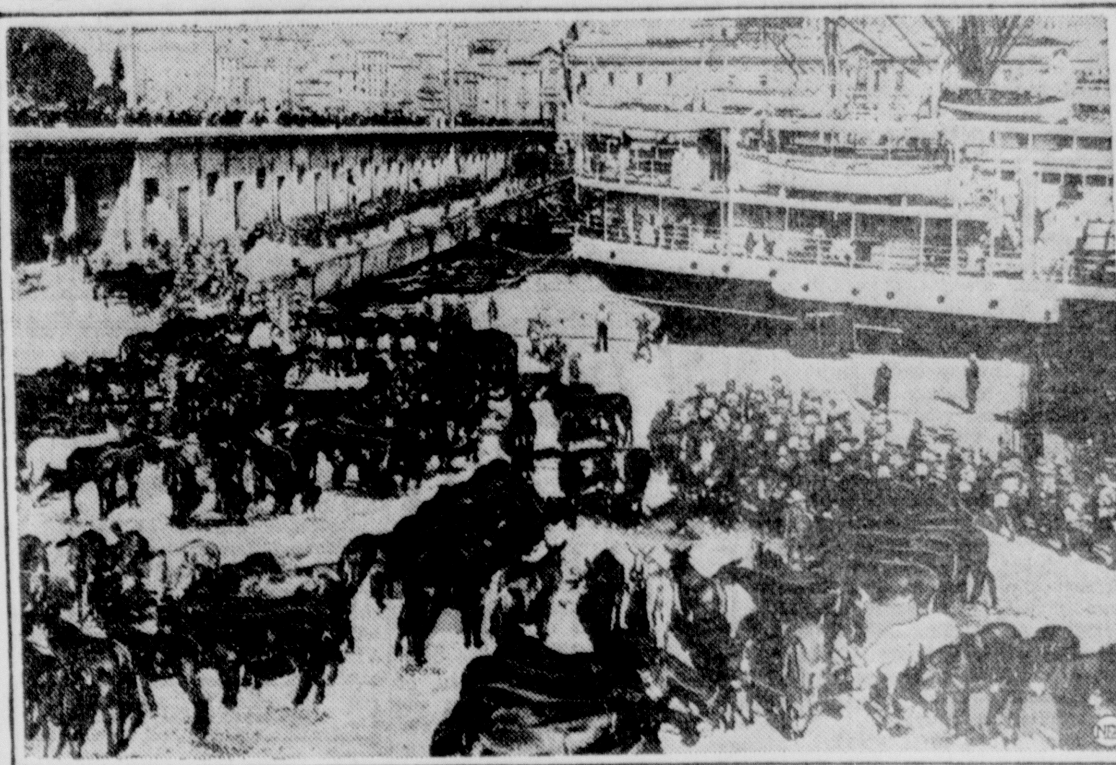

A new national memorial to Abraham Lincoln, to be dedicated July 4, is this Lincoln pioneer village, erected in the city park of Rockport, Ind., near the place where the Emancipator lived from his seventh to twenty-first year. The community as it was in the days of Lincoln's boyhood has been faithfully reproduced, with cabins, stockade, primitive furniture, and an oxcart.

It's Rough Sailing; but War's a Rough Game!

When Mars strides onto the set, King Neptune apparently plays a minor role; in this picturesque scene, a German war vessel, intent upon carrying out difficult maneuvers, dips its bow deep into giant waves, riding heedlessly the perilous, heavy seas. The torpedo-boat Iliss is shown during recent German naval "war games" in the North Sea.

African Front Beckons Four-Footed 'Warriors'

Expected to be invaluable in helping their Italian masters wage war over the rugged Ethiopian terrain, scores of mules and horses, munching contentedly, are pictured above as they awaited transportation to the African war theater, while troops marched across the wharf and curious Genoa crowds looked on from street level. Italy thus continued its feverish war preparations, despite avowals of league powers to act against any aggression.

Type of Ethiopian Village Which Italians Bombed

Typical of the villages over which Italian bombers have roared, raining death and ruin, is the picturesque hamlet in western Ethiopia, shown above, so far unscathed, but soon likely to be in the path of the invaders. The grass-thatched huts look like toadstools sprawled in the valley. Back of them are small woods and a few more huts are scattered on the knobby hill which rises at the right.

Banner Occasion for Italian Troops Going to Africa

Are the Italian soldiers downhearted at the prospect of fighting the Ethiopians? This group says they aren't. Carrying banners (that below is a regimental emblem which has been decorated with a Jolly Roger, and that above shows Haile Selassie fleeing before an attack), singing and cheering lustily, they sailed with 3000 comrades from Naples.

First Scot Clan Chieftainess?

If the claims of this bonnie Scotch lassie, Catriona MacLean, of Ardgour, to the chieftainship of the MacLeans of Argyllshire, Scotland, are honored, she will be the first of her sex to head a clan in the history of the Scottish Highlands. Miss MacLean is pictured at the recent gathering of her clan at Oban, Scotland, where she advanced her claims.

Huey's Aide Also Is 'Pajama Host'

From Huey Long, his late boss, Seymour Weiss, who runs New Orleans' biggest hotel and Dock Board, apparently inherited the whimsy of greeting interviewers in his pajamas. Shown above, in New York, Weiss, one of the top figures in the fight for the dead Kingfish's power, denied politics prompted his visit. He's under federal indictment for income tax evasion.

Royally Welcomed

Happy at the honor of being listed to sing before the British royal family, Rose Bampton, American opera soprano, flashed this smile before the camera as she touched shore in England recently.

HAS MUSSOLINI WISDOM? "NO" SAYS SPEAKER

Despite his popularity, Mussolini, the war lord, lacks the kind of wisdom needed to lead the world through future years; so is that wisdom lacking in the American people who voted King Alcohol into power over them, declared Captain C. W. Gallipio, of the Salvation Army, in his sermon yesterday on the subject, "Is Wisdom Found in Our Present Civilization?"

He went on to point out that there is a source of wisdom found in the 11th Psalm: "The fear of the Lord is the beginning of wisdom."

"If you will open your Bible to the 11th Psalm and the 10th verse, these words will be found: 'The fear of the Lord is the beginning of wisdom.'"

"It is supposed that this Psalm was written to be sung at the Passover ceremony. It is an exhortation to praise God for His wonderful benefits and blessings bestowed on the world at large, and especially on Israel and the Church. Therefore by the words 'The fear of the Lord' is meant reverence and obedience to God by which he who fears the Lord departs from evil; for he who lives in sin neither fears God, nor is wise, or other words, one who lives to secure their own peace, their neighbor's good, and God's glory, is wise."

Mussolini Popular

"Now, in the light of God's Word let us discuss the question: 'Is wisdom found in our present civilization?'"

"Probably the most popular man in the world today is Mussolini. They tell us that he served in the ranks of his country as a common soldier during the World war, and that he rose from a wounded soldier, left behind on the battlefield, to the exalted position of Premier and sole dictator of his nation. Surely we admit that would require outstanding intelligence on the part of any one."

"Further we learn he has maintained and even strengthened his power of dictatorship for something like the past 15 years. And again we admit that requires super intelligence, else his enemies would have overthrown him."

"Is there wisdom in this man that either the world or his own nation can trust to lead them on through future years?"

"What has he done? Raised the standard of living some, yes, and possibly we could name some other favorable achievements accomplished. But to offset all this he has organized legions and armed them to the hilt for war. Then, when the man-power gave out, he delved into the youth of the country, training all the boys, down to 8 years of age, for what? Simply gun fodder. Next we find his armies, drunk with the propaganda of restoring the ancient glory of the Roman Empire, marching forth to war!"

"Reasons" Given

"Of course the reason given is 'congested population' and 'need for expansion.' While at the same time he conducts and encourages wholesale marriages to increase the population; or is it just to supply more soldiers to face the grim horror and death of war? If his armies should gain their forlorn glory, would it not be so he could rule the world?"

"Mussolini may possess great intelligence, but surely this is not the cherished and long-sought wisdom the world needs to solve its many problems."

"No, we cannot look to any individual, it matters not how popular they may be, to give us the Holy Wisdom dedicated to peace of soul, love for our neighbor and glory of God."

"A few years ago in our own beloved country, the people by a majority vote repealed prohibition. Thus pouring out the poisonous liquors, with all its degradation of ruined lives, of starving and deprived children, of beaten wives, pouring it out over our fair land like a flood. Already we're reaping a harvest of hopeless inebriates. Drunkards crying from the burning thirst that only produces the horrible delirium tremens. Honor-able people, too respectable to visit the old time saloon, now face the liquor traffic in almost every drug store and restaurant they enter. Thus, wedging its way into the more respectable businesses, King Alcohol thrusts his deadly fangs at every man, woman and child, and always with the same ruinous threat, to consume their very lives in its passion."

Wisdom Source

"Oh, America! Was it wise?"

"Surely this is not the pure, undefiled wisdom that produces peace of soul or love for our fellowman or does glory to God. No, we cannot receive from any group of individuals the precious wisdom we need."

"But, thank God, there is a source of supply! It's found in the 'fear of the Lord.' The consecrated life that dares to entrust its care and keeping into His hands shall be 'led into paths of righteousness for His name's sake,' for it is written 'there's a highway there and a way.' And no matter how fierce the storm of life may be, or how great the problems that confront us, the promise still stands, 'the wayfarer man, though a fool, need not err therein.'"

Christian Science

"The prayer of faith shall save the sick, and the Lord shall raise him up; and if he have committed sins, they shall be forgiven him." These words of James were the Golden Text in the lesson-sermon yesterday at the Santa Ana First Church of Christ, Scientist. The question "Are Sin, Disease, and Death Real?" was the subject of the lesson-sermon.

One of the Scriptural selections presented verses from The Acts about the lame man at the temple gate who asked alms of Peter and John. The citation continued: "Then Peter said, Silver and gold have I none; but such as I have give I thee; In the name of Jesus Christ of Nazareth rise up and walk. And he took him by the right hand, and lifted him up; and immediately his feet and ancles bones received strength. And he leaping up stood, and walked, and entered with them into the temple walking, and leaping, and praising God."

The lesson-sermon included also the passage from "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures," by Mary Baker Eddy: "Anciently those apostles who find Jesus' students, as well as Paul who was not one of his students, healed the sick and reformed the sinner by their religion."

Motion pictures also were enjoyed by the auxiliary members and their guests who included Mrs. Leola Egan, Mrs. Ten Eyck, Mr. and Mrs. Hayden Squires and Mrs. Ashur Fuller. Members present were the hosts with Messrs. and Mesdames Fred Schwendeman, Hayden Squires, Arthur Trickey, M. J. P. Hill, Vernon Hill, John L. Reynolds, Charles Beasley, Ernest Marks, Fred Asman, Phil C. Holmer, Jack Makely, Gavin H. Baxter.

Mesdames Gladys Buchheim, Mabel Read, Eva Samuels, Doris Halliday, the Misses Evelyn Scherbert, Florence Scherbert, Thelma Trickey, Hazel Hill, Thelma Marks, Doris Webster, Phyllis Asman, Ora Beasley, Dorothy Jean Asman, Dorothy Hill, Alleen Asman, Mildred Makely, Donna Fuller, Genevieve Buchheim, Rosamond Makely, Francis Buchheim, Ott E. Linnartz, Leonard Schwendeman, Chester Hill, Robert Baxter, Russell Makely, Billy Kellam, Ronald Squires, Donald Fuller, Billy Squires.

Plans were made for a Halloween party on the night of October 26 in the Schwendeman mountain cabin in Trabuco Canyon. Mr. and Mrs. Fred Schwendeman, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Trickey and the Dr. Wiskman will be the host committee.

Parent-Teachers

Forming a little social group designed to further friendship and intimacy between association members, grade mothers of McKinley school held the first of a series of informal sessions Friday afternoon when they were entertained by Mrs. Herbert Hildebrand, 1634 West First street.

A score or more members responded to Mrs. Hildebrand's invitation, and brought needlework or knitting with which to occupy their fingers as they chatted of association matters and more general activities. At the close of the afternoon the hostess served delectable home-made cinnamon rolls and coffee.

Damascus White Shrine

Conducting Friday night's meeting of Damascus White Shrine in Masonic temple, Mrs. Sue Henry, worthy high priestess, had assistance of past officers of the organization.

Dr. C. T. Cleland served as watchman of shepherds for Fred Pope, who has gone to San Francisco to attend grand lodge. Other line officers were in Long Beach attending a meeting of Calvary Shrine. This group included Mr. and Mrs. W. B. McConnell, Mr. and Mrs. W. Hyde, Mrs. Walter Wright and Mrs. J. H. Nicholson.

Tomorrow: Tomb for a Tooth.

NEW ZEALAND'S ODDITIES WILL BE TALK TOPIC

Professor Wilbur S. Tupper, of Whittier college, will present his second illustrated lecture in the basement of St. Lutheran church, Sixth and Garvey streets, tomorrow evening at 8 o'clock.

Professor Tupper will lecture on New Zealand, a land where parrots kill sheep, where resin is dug out of the ground, where many birds cannot fly, and where there are no snakes, it is said.

Everyone is invited to hear this lecture, which will be illustrated with beautiful colored slides. There will be no admission charge, but a silver offering will be taken, it was stated by the pastor, the Rev. H. W. Meyer.

The lecture is being sponsored by the Brotherhood of the church.

Chiropractic Auxiliary

Resuming stated meetings after a summer of informal outings and barbecues, members of Chiropractic auxiliary were welcomed last week to the home of Drs. James and Estelle Workman, 1905 Valencia street.

"Home-coming" was the theme of the evening which opened with a tangle pie supper served in the basement of the home, appropriately decked in Halloween array. Members contributed salads, pie and other appetizing dishes to the menu, served by Dr. Estelle Workman, Mabel Read, Carol Reynolds and Thelma Trickey.

Program features were held in the living rooms of the home where community singing of "America" was followed by the quartet, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Asman, Mrs. J. Haun, and J. L. Reynolds in "Build on the Bank," solos, "Round up Time in Texas," "Home on the Range" and "I've Got No Use for Women," by Mrs. Eva Samuels; solo by Mrs. Asman accompanied by Mrs. Carol Reynolds; harmonica solos by Jack Makely.

Dr. James Workman launched the year's lecture series by talking on the human anatomy, and showed a valuable volume by John F. South, assistant surgeon to St. Thomas' hospital, published in London in 1837. This book was a gift to him from Cornelius Van Bruggen.

Motion pictures also were enjoyed by the auxiliary members and their guests who included Mrs. Leola Egan, Mrs. Ten Eyck, Mr. and Mrs. Hayden Squires and Mrs. Ashur Fuller. Members present were the hosts with Messrs. and Mesdames Fred Schwendeman, Hayden Squires, Arthur Trickey, M. J. P. Hill, Vernon Hill, John L. Reynolds, Charles Beasley, Ernest Marks, Fred Asman, Phil C. Holmer, Jack Makely, Gavin H. Baxter.

THE NEBBES—Get Out and Stay Out

POOR RUDY STILL HAS A VERY HIGH TEMPERATURE AND IS IRRATIONAL—ALL THIS CAUSED BY HIS SELLING STOCK WHICH WOULD HAVE MADE HIM RICH...HAD HE HELD IT.

COME ON NOW, MR. NEBB, LET ME ROLL UP YOUR SLEEVE—LET THE DOCTOR GIVE YOU SOMETHING TO QUIET YOU A BIT.

QUIET ME? WHO'S COMPLAINING ABOUT THE NOISE I'M MAKING? PUT IT IN YOUR OWN ARM—YOU'RE DOING ALL THE TALKING.

GET OUT OF HERE, YOU GOLD THIEF, YOU'RE TRYING TO STEAL MY GOLD—WHAT DID YOU BRING THAT SATCHEL IN HERE FOR?

RUDY! RUDY, CALM DOWN—THAT'S THE DOCTOR—HE'S TRYING TO HELP YOU, DARLING.

I DIDN'T SEND FOR A DOCTOR—HE'S NO DOCTOR—I SAW HIM COME IN THROUGH THE WINDOW AND HE HAD ABOUT 100 GUYS WITH HIM AND THEY HAD SHOVELS AND PICK AXES.

PARDON US

If we seem to urge, please excuse. We are quite enthusiastic about the future values of real estate. Why? Because rentals and sales prices are going up and no fooling. $3000 this morning takes a Main St. business property, house included, and that's something to think about if you have $500 stuck away some place and can make payments.

One of the best 15 yr. old 10 acre Val. Groves. The owners need money and they say "Sell it at a big sacrifice." It is well located in a frostless and windless district—near Kelly. Owners say sell this 5 R. Spanish stucco at $1750, away below production cost of the house. Sealing is believing.

NEWS NOT REASSURING

As Italy proceeds in her march of pillage by the route of bombs and bribery, to the destruction of the Ethiopians and the capture of their villages, the League of Nations asks for the enforcement of its actions by the legislatures of the various countries by the last day of October.

In the meantime, there are many voices urging that they "mustn't be severe on Italy in the beginning." We had begun to have a little more faith in the League of Nations, but if this be the best it can do, we believe it will prove of little value. If the League must take all of this time to "oil up" and insert the needed part in the ponderous machine before the League can even hope to get it to move, it will be worth no more, to protect the weak against the strong, than a pardon would be when received the day after the prisoner was executed.

Of course, Emperor Selassie can have some of these resolutions embodied and framed to put on the wall of his office, if he has an office with walls big enough to put these resolutions on after Mussolini gets through with Abyssinia.

This is the way it looks this morning. One wonders whether England and France are really in good faith. If they are, and especially if England is, there will have to be some evidence of it soon.

In the slang phrase, we are rather afraid that "Japan had the League of Nations' number," and Italy isn't so dumb but that she sees it. It may be that Japan is starting some more trouble of her own against Russia. Russia hasn't wanted to fight. A nation that does and is willing to do so, at least in the early stages, gets very far.

We have been cautioned that we cannot believe all of the dispatches that come out of the war zone. Certainly the dispatches from those sections of Abyssinia that are in the hands of the Italians, are coming out with their approval, and probably with their censorship.

So it is exceedingly difficult for us to get exactly what has happened. Diplomatically speaking, even when we do get what has happened, in public words, we do not know what is being done behind the public statement by the various national representatives.

Even a man as astute as President Wilson and who was right on the ground, supposedly meeting the representatives of the other nations during their entire waking period, was deceived and euhed out of everything he wanted because there were secret understandings, of which he knew nothing.

In any case, the news that is coming now is not very reassuring.

"LIP SERVICE" AND LIFE DEVOTION

An eminent member of the Harvard University faculty, Professor Kirtley Mather, announced that he would refuse to take the oath of loyalty to the Constitution as prescribed by an act passed by the Massachusetts legislature. It was planned to carry the case to the courts on the ground that the state could not control the acts of a private educational institution.

Now President Conant of Harvard university has announced that any professor refusing to take the oath would not be permitted to teach in the university. Harvard university means to obey the law, he said, and will demand that all its teachers do so. As a result, Professor Mather agreed to take the oath.

It is difficult for many people to understand why a college professor refuses to take an oath to support the Constitution. It is no objection to the Constitution that makes them balk at the oath.

It is what they call the officiousness and the insolence of compacted minority groups in questioning their loyalty to the Constitution. These men are not Communists. They are loyal American citizens. But they resent having their motives impugned.

It must be perfectly evident to every reasonable man that taking the oath to support the Constitution will not make a person any more patriotic or loyal, unless that loyalty and patriotism is genuine and sincere to begin with. All the colleges of Massachusetts opposed the enactment of the law.

All of them expressed their devotion to the fundamental law of the land. But they felt it was an imputation of disloyalty to single them out from all others.

Professor Mather, we happen to know, is not a radical at all. He has stood for every cause that promotes good citizenship. He is a Christian gentleman who has made a large contribution to religious organizations.

To cast the shadow of doubt upon such a man is ridiculous. There are those who feel that fundamentally he is much more patriotic than those who are demanding "lip service" to the Constitution rather than life devotion to it.

RIGHTS AND DUTIES OF CITIZENS

Who of us has not been impatient, as he has seen a palpable violation of speed laws or traffic laws and wished there were an officer near, to whom appeals could be made?

We are not referring to those thoughtless acts, where a person has not noticed the change in the signals. But we refer to such a case as when a driver, without any consideration for traffic, speeds through an intersection at double the speed permitted in that section of the city. We mean such a case as when one, in traffic, passes cars in front of him at a reckless speed and then forces himself back into the line, barely in time to avoid a collision with traffic in the other direction.

These are the times when many people desire an officer to be near. But we are reminded by a deputy sheriff, who is also an instructor in law, that we do not need an officer at all in such cases.

Each citizen has the prerogatives to arrest such a man and take him at once to the authorities.

Writing in the Los Angeles Times Sunday Magazine, A. L. Latham quotes from the California Penal code. He refers to the section number, 837, and here is the way it reads:

"A private person may arrest another:

"(1.) For a public offense committed or attempted in his presence.

"(2.) When the person arrested has committed a felony, although not in his presence.

"(3.) When a felony has been in fact committed, and he has reasonable cause for believing the person arrested to have committed it."

Then the writer of this article adds his comment:

Your right to arrest wrongdoers is more than a right, it's a duty. We can't expect police officers to catch all our law-breakers for us because there are not enough policemen; and experts contend that we will never succeed in curtailing crime effectually until the private citizen feels personally responsible for arresting offenders.

This is his explanation:

The term "public offense" includes both misdemeanors and felonies—any kind of lawlessness, in fact, ranging from failing to make a boulevard stop, to committing murder. Offenses committed "in his presence" would be those the citizen actually saw, or heard.

It would be well if, in the interest of public safety, more of the citizens would stand ready to exercise their rights and their duty in these respects, for officers cannot be everywhere.

There are many cases where the violation is so flagrant, and, incidentally, so contemptuous, that it would be in the interest of society's protection and the culprit's good behavior to perform the service of a good citizen, as suggested by this writer.

Italy's Foreign Trade

During recent years the United States has been the primary source of raw materials for the highly developed, but heavily dependent, industrialism that has built in Italy. Our exports to Italian markets have exceeded those of any other nation. Raw cotton has been the principal item of this trade, followed by wheat, mineral oils and non-ferrous metals. From Italy we have taken silk, olive oil, a few fabrics, many "objets d'art," quantities of fruits and cheese. Invariably the total value of our purchases has fallen short of the total value of our sales. In 1929 the spread between the two figures amounted to more than forty million dollars. In 1932 hard times in both countries narrowed it to less than eight.

What is typical of our own trade with Italy is also typical of the whole of that country's commercial relations with other nations. To the world at large Italy sells the specialized products of her climate and her native skill. From the world at large she purchases foodstuffs and the raw materials without which her modern industries could not function, nor her armies march. Her well-developed automotive and iron and steel industries depend heavily on foreign ore and scrap. Even more essential is foreign coal, not only for manufacturing but for shipping. Invariably, as in the case of her exchange of goods with the United States, Italy is forced to buy abroad more than she sells. The balance of trade has run against her in every year of the present century. This balance she has traditionally adjusted through such "invisible" trade items as remittances sent home by Italian emigrants abroad.

These circumstances shape questions which other nations will doubtless consider as they weigh the proposal for economic sanctions to be enforced against Italy through the League of Nations. Such sanctions call not only for resolution but for sacrifice. Italy's neighbors relish trade with her; first, because she offers a market for their surplus raw materials; second, because her willingness to purchase more than she sells, on balance, simplifies for them the question of exchange and helps to avoid the "transfer" problem. These are manifest advantages. And it is doubtless a desire not to lose them that prompted opinions cable to The Times last week from Central European capitals. "Economic sanctions against Italy," said a dispatch from Belgrade, "would greatly damage Yugoslavia's economic life, because Italy is Yugoslavia's most important export market." "League economic sanctions," said a wireless from Vienna, "would affect extremely unfavorably the economic life of Austria and Hungary," since "most of the exports of these two countries go to Italy."

League Council Follows Mussolini Across Rubicon

A historic event fraught with tremendous possibilities occurred yesterday.

The Council of the League of Nations, consisting of the representatives of thirteen nations, held Italy guilty of aggression in its attack on Ethiopia and voted penalties under Article 16 of the League Covenant.

This is the first time since the organization of the League that such an action has been taken.

Tomorrow the Assembly of the League, consisting of all the member states, will vote on the action of the Council. It is a foregone conclusion that the Assembly will approve, because it is upon the major nations of the Council that the job of applying the penalties will fall. Moreover, the smaller nations in self-interest want to preserve the League.

The Council recommended only economic and financial "sanctions," sanctions which Italy has announced that it will tighten its belt and bear. But "sanctions" include all sanctions. It is only the present application that is confined to the lighter kind.

The one question now in the public mind is, Will the action of the League result in war? The answer is, Not immediately, at least. If Italy is prepared for a quick campaign in Ethiopia and a possible peace with Haile Selassie, it is possible that Italy can stand the financial and economic sanctions.

But if the war is drawn out—and experts are agreed that it will be—the time will come when Italy must yield to the demands of the League and cease firing, or must blast her way through the blockade which will doubtless be imposed.

If Italian cruisers undertake to hold up merchant ships of England, France or other League nations furnishing arms or commodities to Ethiopia, that will be a cause of war.

Unless Italy is ready to retire from Ethiopia after what she calls her punitive expedition and her vindication of the Aduwa disaster of forty years ago, the situation will become increasingly tense.

Both Italy and the League have crossed the Rubicon. The die is cast. No one can tell the outcome.

ON GUARD

I love to look across the track
And watch the semaphores
Above the switchman's tiny shack
Where traffic grinds and roars.
A noisy freight comes clanking by,
Expresses thunder through,
But when aloft I turn my eye
I gain a finer view.

The green lights and the red lights,
That tinkle in the dark;
Each seems to me
At night to be
A silent, dancing spark.
They line the way
As if to say
"What need has man to fear?
Move on, you trains,
O'er hills and plains,
We semaphores are here!"

These little dots of dancing flame
Are always wide awake,
They seem to play a happy game
Of railroad hide and seek.
They thrust their warning fingers forth,
When twilight dims the day,
And east and west and south and north
The rumbling trains obey.

You'll find them on the prairies,
They overlook the streams,
While here and there
And everywhere
Their warning flints and gleams.
They stand aloof
And blizzard-proof,
Come darkness or the dawn;
Through hail or snow
Or storm or blow
They bravely carry on.

Thoughts On Modern Life

BY GLENN FRANK

PRIVATE SOCIAL AGENCIES ARE VITAL

During the last six years the voluntarily supported social institutions have encountered increased difficulty in adequately financing themselves.

Tomorrow I shall suggest that their difficulty has been due to something more than the impact of the depression on the incomes of their normal supporters that it roots, in part at least, in a very real shift that is taking place in the relative roles of private and public undertakings.

Today I confine myself to an affirmation of my belief in the critical importance of preserving these voluntary social institutions unimpaired.

I cannot be accused of acting as attorney for any vested interest of my own if I undertake to state the case for these institutions. As the chief executive of a state university, I am a servant of government, not concerned with endowment drives and in no wise dependent upon variations in the flow of public beneficence. I speak for these voluntary private agencies solely because I believe that any permanent slump in their support, any permanent shrinkage of their role in American life, would be a national calamity.

In the basic fields of health, of preventive and remedial medicine, of education, and of social service generally, it is important, I think, that we keep, in right proportion, private and public agencies running neck and neck.

In some matters the private agency will serve as check and pace setter for the public agency. In other matters the public agency will serve as check and pace setter for the private agency.

We have heard much of the necessity for a public yardstick by which to measure the justice and dependability of price and policy in the utility field. It is imperative, I think, that we have private yardsticks by which to measure the objectives and standards of those social services for which government rightly assumes responsibility. This is the case for the voluntary social institutions, but the case may never get to court unless, as a people, we really come to grips with the age-old delusion, lately revived in the name of liberalism, that there is some short cut to social greatness through the overloading of the state.

The implications of this lately revived delusion for the future of hospitals, schools, colleges, universities, and other social enterprises heretofore supported by voluntary contributions I shall discuss tomorrow.

FOOD AND THE CHILD

I am certain that a lot of the trouble we have with ailing children is owing to poor food. They eat the wrong thing at the wrong time and under wrong conditions. And that's why their meal-time should be carefully supervised.

We had a child who was very much underweight. He was a source of worry to his parents and his teachers. Such a jumpy little thing. The teacher helped him. The nurse gave him a list of the things he should eat. The doctor instructed him as to what to do. But all to no avail. Wee Willie didn't gain. His conduct didn't improve the least bit.

"Something must be wrong," said the nurse. "If he ate as we told him to eat, if he rested, if he slept he would gain. He hasn't gained an ounce in a week. He is no better than when we began."

The next day she followed the child at lunch time. To her amazement he went straight to the nearby store where there were plenty of sweets to be had. He selected one cream puff, one chocolate éclair, one spice cake, one peanut bar, and he was carrying this load of contraband to his corner when she pounced upon him.

"So this is where you come! Young man after this you eat where we can see you."

Children who are not thriving, children who can't behave, children who aren't doing well, should be forbidden to eat at the corner candy shop. They should be forbidden to leave the school during lunch hour. Their money accounts should be carefully scrutinized. They should be regularly weighed and their diets adjusted to their needs. For it is the duty of the school and the home to preserve their health and to maintain their growth. No matter what comes or goes they must be fed properly.

A child behaves according to his feelings. Mistaken eating will make a child feel like a little fiend and he will behave like one. It is easy to manage a healthy child. His mischief is only the expression of good spirits. But the behavior of an under-nourished child is another matter altogether.
